

Air-Born Senior Jaycie Johnson spikes the ball into the Falcon court. Jaycie's height and athletic ability made her kills very hard for the Eagles' opponents to return.

Unblockable! New to the team, but not the sport, freshman Emy Russell prepares to spike the ball around the awaiting Newberry Academy blocker during one of the teams many road wins this season.

Serving It Up Caleigh Caldwell powerfully serves against Newberry Academy. Caleigh was one of three freshmen to play for the Lady Eagles this season.

Concentration is Key Coach Callie Sims gathers her players during a timeout at Ben Lippen School to help guide them to another Eagle victory!

All IN! Senior Rebecca Robertson leaves it all on the court during the state championship game versus Anderson Christian Academy. It was a tough loss for the Lady Eagles since they had already beaten their opponent twice during the regular season.

How did you feel after the State Championship game?

I was hurt just because as a senior, you don't get another chance.
Jaycie Johnson, 12th

It was one of the hardest and most emotional times I have had because it was my last volleyball game.
Marion Walker Coleman, 12th

It was a shock after our undefeated season.
Rebecca Robertson, 12th
