

Fired Up Chrissy Caudill along with Addie Bostrom and Cassie McKeown get fired up as their Eagles push for the win against Newberry Academy.

Defence Nancy Blair Gonzalez cheers on the boys as they get the ball back for another Richard Winn defensive touchdown.

Eagles Spirit Staying dedicated to her team until the end, senior Perry Anne Robinson shows her Eagle spirit during her last year as an Eagle cheerleader.

One Team The Lady Eagles bonded together through long hours of practice and camp and cheered loud and proud for their Eagles during victories as well as losses.

Do you think cheer is a sport?

"Cheering for football is not, but I think competitive cheer is because you are competing." Nancy Blair Gonzalez, 12th

"No, at Richard Winn we do not compete with other schools around us." Marion Walker Coleman, 12th

"Yes, because we lift, throw, and catch people, not balls, and if cheerleading was easy they would call it football." Cassie McKeown, 10th
