

Determination Bailey Taylor gets a put back against Anderson Christian. Crashing the basket after a missed shot was something Coach Halt emphasized during games.

Pass, Pass, Shoot Gracie Atkerson, Hannah Gibbons, and Lydia Wilder pass the ball around the perimeter hoping to get the defense off balance and allow an open shot. The Lady Eagles' thick play book constantly had their opponents guessing what was coming.

Leap Jaycie Johnson passes the ball to break Chesnee's defense. This senior's height and athletic abilities will be missed next season.

Cannon Alyssa Atkerson leads the fast break down the home court giving the Lady Eagles another two points after a successful layup.

Which one of the four state championships were the most memorable? Why?

The second one because we went into overtime against Thomas Sumter.
Kimmy Albert, 10th

The second one because of how close the game was and how exciting it felt to win such a tough game.
Calee Thiipen, 10th

The most recent one because I felt like I contributed in getting there and winning state.
Lydia Wilder, 10th
