

Tip-off Senior John Coleman has an impressive vertical jump and uses his talent to give the Eagles an advantage of having the ball to begin the game.

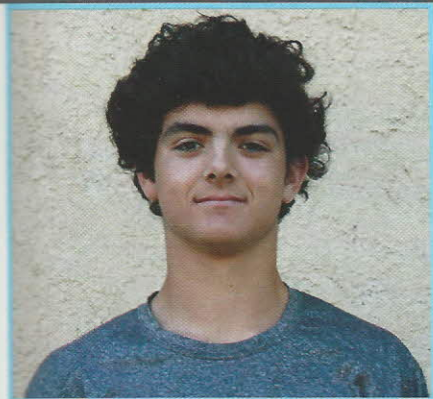

A Step Ahead Point guard Noah Edwards races to the goal for a layup giving his team the lead at home against Newberry.

High Hops Sophomore Lane Bickett takes a shot in the paint for the Eagles. Despite his young age, he brought spectacular skills to the court this past season.

Speedy Mitchell Gibbons uses his ball handling skills and crosses over the defender as he drives down the court for another two points.

What was a drill that benefited you the most during practice? Why?

Pass and cut offense because it was the most beneficial and easy.
Bryant Carvalho, 11th

4 man shell because I got to work on offense and defense.
Gunnar Hensley, 12th

Oklahoma because it helped with passing and shooting.
Todd Johnson, 11th
