

Go for Gold Richard Winn was proud of the 2007 baseball team for getting another championship under their belt.

Hole in One The Eagle golf team shows that through hard work and perseverance becoming number one isn't out of reach

All or Nothing Ben Porter was recognized as being an All-State player along with other awards after being part of the 1997 State Championship team. Ben Porter returned to RWA as a coach and teacher.

Big Bling The 1996 Cheerleaders were on the sidelines of every game cheering their football team to the school's first football State Championship.

One Team One Dream The Lady Eagles united as one to win the ultimate dream of being the State Champions! Senior Barbara Barnett would go on to play basketball for Clemson University on an athletic scholarship.

Go for Two Richard Winn's boys basketball player J. [Name] goes for two from the point of a regular season home game. [Name] Raymond Gardner led his '74 team to the first basketball State Championship for the school.

