Turn the Page Dylan "Alvin" Albert and Brantley "Dorothy" Caulder smile big as they present their outfits for Book Character Day. The elementary classes paraded the school showing off their favorite characters from books that they had read this year.

Go Eagles! First grade cheerleaders, Sarah and Brantley show their Eagle pride on Homecoming. These little Eagles had the privilege to cheer during the 2015 powerpuff game with other members of their squad.

Book Worm Abigail poses with her favorite book during library time. The library has books of all shapes, sizes, and levels for any student to check out, it even has I Spy books like this one.

Joining Together Mrs. Sherwood and her class stand at attention to recite the Pledge of Allegiance during chapel. Chapel was held every Wednesday for students to worship and sing.
