

Read to Succeed! Bennett stops to choose with his two books he checked out at the library. With lions and tanks on his mind, everyone can see this second grader loves action and adventure.

Thing One and Two! Lelia and Addi dress up as characters from The Cat and the Hat on book character day. These "Things" made sure everyone had a great day but did not get into quite as much mischief as the real Thing 1 and 2.

Christmas Comes Early! JT shops around at the Santa Shoppe contemplating which present would be best for his friends and family. The hidden treasures and finds at the Santa Shoppe have always created excitement for the younger students.

Doodles! Ellie colors a masterpiece during the homecoming pep rally. Students participated in a sidewalk decorating contest which was a nice welcome for fans attending the Homecoming Game.

Daddy's Girls! A group of second grade girls take a break from dancing at the Daddy Daughter Dance to smile for a picture. All the girls loved getting dressed up and enjoyed spending date night with their fathers.

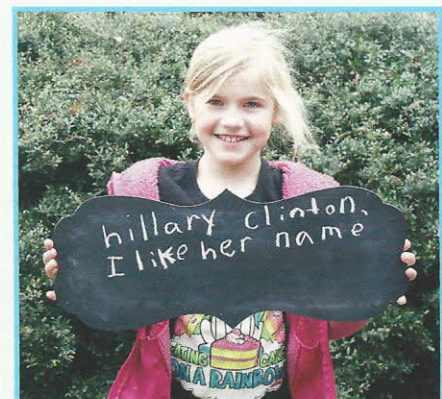

Who would you like to see elected as president in 2016 and why?
