

All Smiles! Hannah and Caleigh were excited to be in Chapel on Wednesday morning. Student government officers planned songs, read scripture, and performed acts that were engaging to all grade levels.

Concentration Station! Bradden works hard on his math project for Mrs. Gibbons. This project made students utilize their grating techniques to make different types of triangles.

Good Times! Hailee and Hannah S. smile for a picture while in Chapel during Homecoming Week. These two always found something to smile about no matter where they were.

Camo Day! Ninth grader and varsity football player Noah tries to get a victory in the homecoming week games during the pep rally.

Desert Dweller Safari Day was new to Homecoming Week this year, and Alex took full advantage of the opportunity.
