

Class Prophecy

As I sit in my 20 room mansion today, wondering what to wear on my TV Quiz show tonight, my mind wanders back to the dear old graduates of 1958. There is...

Bobby Lail, the heir to a large sum of money. After his trip around the world, he intends to go someplace else.

Annette McGuirt, married after school was out and still on her honeymoon in Paris.

Jerry Branham, graduated from U.S.C. and making a U.S. guided missile. He will make his second expedition to Pluto next March.

Bobby Wilson, employed at the May Plant in Camden. He changes secretaries once a month to break the monotony.

Gladys Branham, the wife of a baseball hero, living in Florida in the winter and in New York during the summer.

Maenell Johnson, now living in a prosperous section of Charleston. She has a dinner party for about 100 guests once a month in her penthouse.

Jeanette Mattox, married to an Air Force guy and enjoying a traveling life with him. She is seeing the world.

Aaron Hollis who looks forward to going home every night to his wife and twins. He now owns Hollis Mercantile, Inc.

Margie Smith, the secretary of Bell Telephone, spending her two months paid vacation in Hawaii.

Polly Reynolds, who joined the WAF and is stationed in Virginia. She is captain of the 49th Division.

Boyd Moseley, graduated from Furman and the Seminary. He is now called the "Second Peter Marshall."

Agnes Humphries, head librarian at the Baptist Book Store. She works 3 days a week; 6 hours a day with 2 hours off for lunch.

Carole Peake, the wife of an Army General. She spends most of her time sewing on stripes and pinning on his medals.

Anna Moore, dancing her way into the hearts of millions of TV fans each week on the Arthur Murray Dance Party.
