Seniors

We, the Senior Class of 1958, proudly dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Cecil W.
Bowers.

All of us express our sincere appreciation for his help, patience, and understanding in making our Senior year one of the most enjoyable years of our school life and wish him the best of luck in the future.

Class History

In the year of 1946 twenty-four boys and girls started to school for their first time. This was strange at first, but as the days went by we began to like school better.

We drifted along happily through grammar school. One of the things we remember was a minstrel we had in the sixth grade.

We now are in the seventh grade. This year will stand out in our minds because we were beginning to be treated as older boys and girls.

At last we find ourselves in the ninth grade and high school. This was a big year because it was now that we would start working for a diploma.

In the tenth grade our class began to get smaller. We now had twenty-one boys and girls in the class.

The eleventh grade was a big year. We were looking forward to our trip to New York, the Junior-Senior Banquet and our play, "Stranger in the Night." All of us worked hard on our many projects and on June 2, 1957, twenty-three juniors and seniors boarded a bus for New York.

Now we find that we are Seniors. Fifteen of us are waiting patiently for May twenty-six when we shall receive our diplomas. We shall never forget dear old "RHS" and all of the teachers who have helped us through twelve years of school. Only four class members have completed twelve years of school at Ridgeway School together. They are Maenell Johnson, Annette McGuirt, Polly Reynolds and Boyd Moseley.

Class Will

- I, Bobby Lail, will my good nature to Ray Perry.
- I, Maenell Johnson, will my ability to read my shorthand lessons out of the back of my book to anyone silly enough to take shorthand.
- I, Margie Smith, will my princess ring to Barbara White.
- I, Bobby Wilson, don't will anything, I'm just glad that I got out.
- I, Lanelle Peake, will my ability to study to Sandra Miles.
- I, Jerry Branham, will my basketball ability to David Gerald.
- I, Agnes Humphries, leave whatever I have, if I have anything, to whoever needs whatever I have and can do anything with whatever this thing is.
- I, Gladys Branham, leave my salesmanship ability to Heyward Mattox.
- I, Aaron Hollis, will my ability to do bookkeeping to Larry Smith.
- I, Carole Peake, will my ability to write "love-letters" to Rhetta Jean Finley.
- I, Anna Moore, wish I had something to leave, but circumstances as they are, I need all that I have and more too.
- I, Annette McGuirt, do will my inherited nickname, "Red," to Grace Perry.
- I, Polly Reynolds, leave my typewriter to Carolyn Branham.
- I, Jeanette Mattox, leave my tall, slender figure to Vera Humphries.
- Last, but not least, I, Boyd Moseley, just plain leave.

Class Prophecy

As I sit in my 20 room mansion today, wondering what to wear on my TV Quiz show tonight, my mind wanders back to the dear old graduates of 1958. There is...

Bobby Lail, the heir to a large sum of money. After his trip around the world, he intends to go someplace else.

Annette McGuirt, married after school was out and still on her honeymoon in Paris.

Jerry Branham, graduated from U.S.C. and making a U.S. guided missile. He will make his second expedition to Pluto next March.

Bobby Wilson, employed at the May Plant in Camden. He changes secretaries once a month to break the monotony.

Gladys Branham, the wife of a baseball hero, living in Florida in the winter and in New York during the summer.

Maenell Johnson, now living in a prosperous section of Charleston. She has a dinner party for about 100 guests once a month in her penthouse.

Jeanette Mattox, married to an Air Force guy and enjoying a traveling life with him. She is seeing the world.

Aaron Hollis who looks forward to going home every night to his wife and twins. He now owns Hollis Mercantile, Inc.

Margie Smith, the secretary of Bell Telephone, spending her two months paid vacation in Hawaii.

Polly Reynolds, who joined the WAF and is stationed in Virginia. She is captain of the 49th Division.

Boyd Moseley, graduated from Furman and the Seminary. He is now called the "Second Peter Marshall."

Agnes Humphries, head librarian at the Baptist Book Store. She works 3 days a week; 6 hours a day with 2 hours off for lunch.

Carole Peake, the wife of an Army General. She spends most of her time sewing on stripes and pinning on his medals.

Anna Moore, dancing her way into the hearts of millions of TV fans each week on the Arthur Murray Dance Party.

CONGRATULATIONS . . .

...to this term's graduates and all good wishes for success in the field they have chosen in which to carve their careers. In searching for a higher education we hope they will remember the fine colleges in our State; if entering business or industry immediately, we hope they will find a successful future here in South Carolina.
