

Last Will and Testament

We, the Class of 1961, being of unsound body and insane mind, do will and bequeath our physical and mental possessions to the members of the rising Senior Class.

As a collective body, we would like to will the following to the rising Senior Class: Our numerous tracks through the halls, and our morning meeting places near the lockers.

As individuals we would like to will the following:

BONNIE SHORT and ESTHER PEACH will their shorthand ability to Carolyn Clyburn and Margaret Crumpton. RAY FULLER leaves his Elvis-like haircut to Edward Blair. MARY JEAN COLLINS bequeaths her creative ability to Judy Marsh and Oscar Collins. MARY COLEMAN leaves for West Point. JIMMY RAY DOUGLAS leaves his love for physics to Harvey Dickerson and Sammy Clowney. BETTY ANNE STONE and JUDY CHAPPELL will their places on the Honor Roll to Spencer Hewitt and Sam Arnette. WALLACE BOULWARE and JOE HENNESSEE leave their shyness of manner to Robert Branham and Joyce Coleman. VIRGIL RABON, FURMAN WHITE, and LARRY MURPHY bequeath their buses to Jerry Stevenson, and Tommy Hudson, hoping they will take good care of them. CHARLES MONTGOMERY, the Maynard G. Krebs of the Senior Class, leaves his Bohemian ways to Butch Varnadore. DAVID GUSTAFSON leaves his obstinate behavior to Ted Nichols and Donald Walker. CHARLES LeGRAND wills his unique character to Paul Dove. PAM FELLERS would leave her voice to any aspiring vocalist in the Junior Class, but she will need it next year at Erskine. ANNE DREW LITTLETON leaves her unusual accent to Robbie Walker. BOBBY PEAKE and HAROLD BRYANT will their business like manner to Jerry Viles and Elize Wilson. MARY HELEN GLADDEN and JOHNNIE CARROLL leave their beautiful hair to Barbara Smith. MARY JO BURLEY leaves her fluency in French to Pierina Pielich. JOHN JOHNSON bequeaths his membership in the Beta Club to Susie Lyles and Marcia Hite. LINDA RAMSEY leaves her loquaciousness to Jennie Ramsey and Christine Holbrook. PAT JACKSON wills her ability to play football to Carolyn Smith and Diane Stokes. ROY LEE DAVIS, Winnsboro's Jack-of-all-trades, leaves his varied jobs to Bobby Johnson and Faye Branham. WILLIE LONG leaves his ability to excel in geometry to Cindy Hiott. SANDRA SIKES and JUDY THOMAS bequeath their Business English ability, to Beverly Powers and Jane Pearson. WESLEY BAKER leaves his voice to Theron Wilson, although Theron doesn't really need it. JERRY LEE SMITH, the Pool shark of the Senior Class, wills his cue stick to Dale Holmes. JERRY SPENCER SMITH and DAVID GERALD leave their curly hair to Margaret Smith and Gale Haygood. GAY TIMMS bequeaths her freckles to Georgia Peay. ANDREA DOVE leaves her love for parties to Betty Jean Osborne. BARBARA BROWN leaves for the matrimonial altar. WAYNE McLENDON wills his enthusiasm and interest in baseball to Don Branham and David Branham. JOETTE SPIRES leaves her bass voice to Mary Jo Turner. KAY BEAM bequeaths her ability in bookkeeping to Brenda Weed. JOHNNY SMITH leaves his sense of humor to Martha Stevenson. JOE ALBERT wills his mechanical aptitude to Walter Rutland. MIRIAM PEAY leaves her slenderness to Patsy Shaw. AUDINE BOONE wills her position at the Economy Drug Store to Ruth Boone and Billy Castles. TED STRANGE and CAROL ANN MORRIS leave their love of college men to Marie Starnes and Kay Bass. EMILY CASTLES and JEAN BASS leave their close friendship to Sandra Evans and Joyce Crawford. LANNY RAY GUNTER wills up-stairs Cornwell to Lionel Ranson. BOBBY CLARKSON leaves his concern for his figure to Wayne Summers. BOBBY FICKLING bequeaths his perfect eyesight to Linda Martin. PEGGY GOODWIN leaves her ability to maintain a peaceful home to Brenda Starnes and Jesse Lee Douglas. DON LEWIS wills his baseball bat to Larry Waters. JOHNNY STARNES and WEDA JO HOUZE leave their English ability to Doug Neal and Verna Reynolds. SPENCER SPIGNER bequeaths his nickname "Tex" to Buddy Turkett. LINDSAY LEVINER, REGGIE BYRD, and E. M. HUNTER leave their places on the gridiron to Buckey Ellison and Steve Hilton. HARRIET McMASTER and JIMMY McLENDON just leave for Carolina. TOMMY BUSBEE and BENNIE McMANUS will about 50 pounds each to Libby Denton. BARBARA WEBB and SANDRA McLENDON bequeath their quiet and unassuming ways to Becky Motes. BETSY THOMPSON leaves her artistic ability to John Carter. GENE KELLY leaves his excellent sense of humor to Jerome Mincy. BRUCE BAKER and DARLENE PORTER will their dancing ability to Ann Brazil and Derrill Mixon. JUNE MEADOWS and STAN GALE leave their acting ability to Joe Warmoth and Margie Beckham. JOHNNY BRIGMAN bequeaths his love of underclassmen to Henry Gerald who does pretty well with them himself. MARY LYNN BROWN and HERMAN PEAKE leave their dependability to Glenda Bolen. CAROL KIMBLE and GLORIA WHITE leave their love for Greenbrier boys to Belvia Wilson. JOYCE LEMMON wills her quaint smile to Brenda Stevenson. BOBBY BROWN and CHRISTINE LEITNER leave their shyness to Donald Branham and Mary Frances Carter. MITCHELL CARTER wills his red hair to Johnny Ray Wilson. CAROLYN GLADDEN and BETTY JO PLYLER leave their jobs at the dime store to whoever wants them. SONJIA PORTER bequeaths her job in the lunchroom to Mr. Stevenson. NELLIE WILSON leaves her incessantly contagious laughter to Norma Jean Hudson. JOHNNY RAGSDALE leaves his tacit behavior to Gloria Douglas and Elmer Fuller. JOHNNIE WILSON and DUB DAVIS will their basketball ability to John Taylor, John McMaster, Alvin