WINNSBORO HIGH SCHOOL

TAKES PLEASURE IN PRESENTING

THE

1962

H A L C Y O N

Foreword

Dear Students,

We, the HALCYON Staff of 1962, sincerely hope that this annual will hold a special place in your memories. In the years to come, while turning through these pages, if you should recall the many smiles, tears, and hopes of the past year, we will be happy, knowing that we have succeeded in bringing these reminiscent thoughts to you as a part of the most wonderful time in all our lives.

We also wish to express the satisfaction and enjoyment we have experienced in preparing this "treasure of memories" for you; and we hope it gives you as much pleasure in reading it.

We have chosen the "Seniors" as our theme, and leave them this last thoughtful bit of advice to remember. . . "As one door closes, another opens."

Looking over these past few months, we have endeavored to select some of the bright spots that stand out in our minds as important events at Winnsboro High School. Now, with these thoughts in mind, we present to you . . . your 1962 HALCYON.

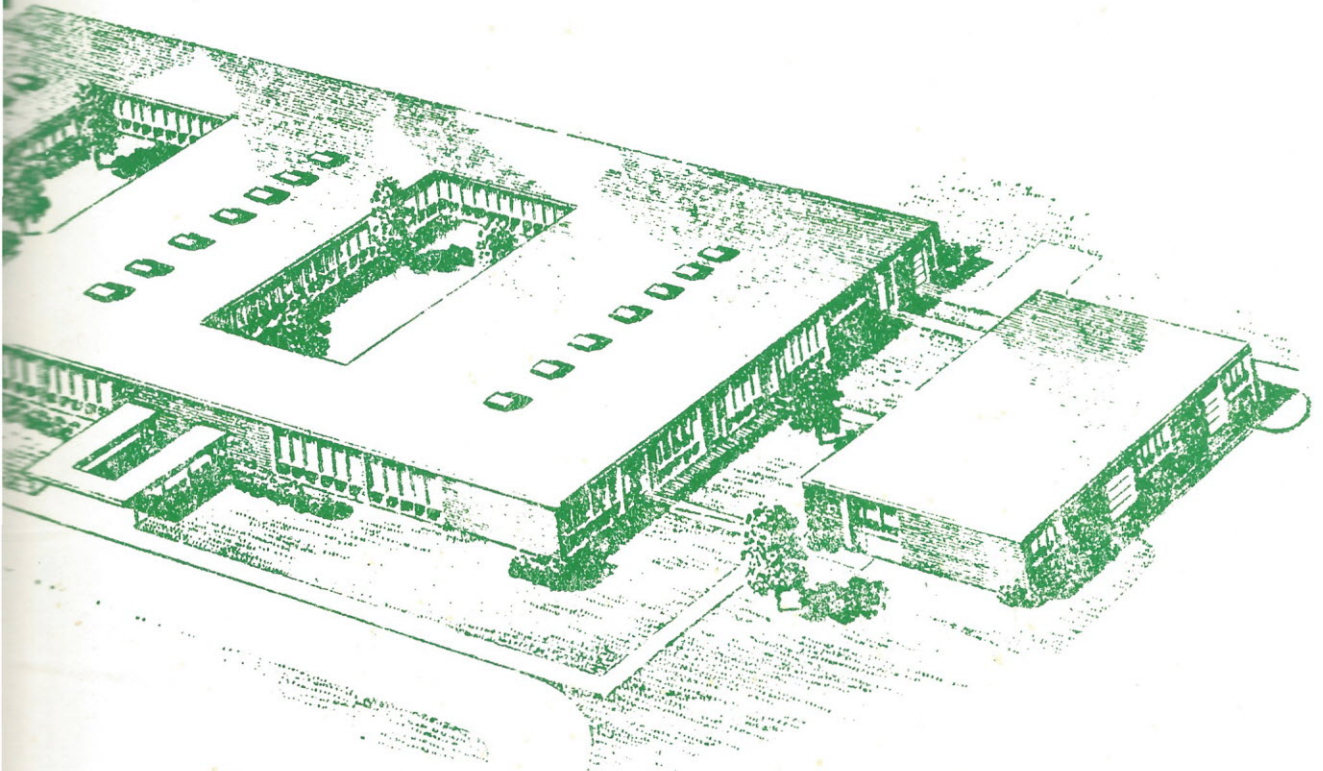

The 1962 HALCYON Staff

Becky Notes

EDITOR

May May
Good luck
to a very pretty girl.
I'll miss you.

S

. . . is for the Senior Class of 1962 . . . the theme of our yearbook. Come with us through these pages, as we share a few moments with the Seniors in their daily lives . . . as they live it day by day . . . and, as we go, exploring the priceless "little" moments that bring us closer to each other . . . and relive the memories that have gathered through these last fleeting months of that unforgettable time of life . . . those "high school days" . . .

is for Each new day . . . that brings fresh and cherished experiences for every one of us, to store away and later recall as dear memories . . . each day - which Seniors face with mixed emotions, . . . anticipation and excitement that come with visions of the future, . . . and sadness, when each day takes them nearer the day when they must leave these traveled halls and make a life in the world.

N

is for Numerous classes . . . that are the essence of a school . . . where we each should strive to learn more, . . . to develop our minds in order that some knowledge might take root and prepare us for the future . . . so that we may have some inkling of life as it should be lived . . . and we may remember to treat our fellow men as brothers.

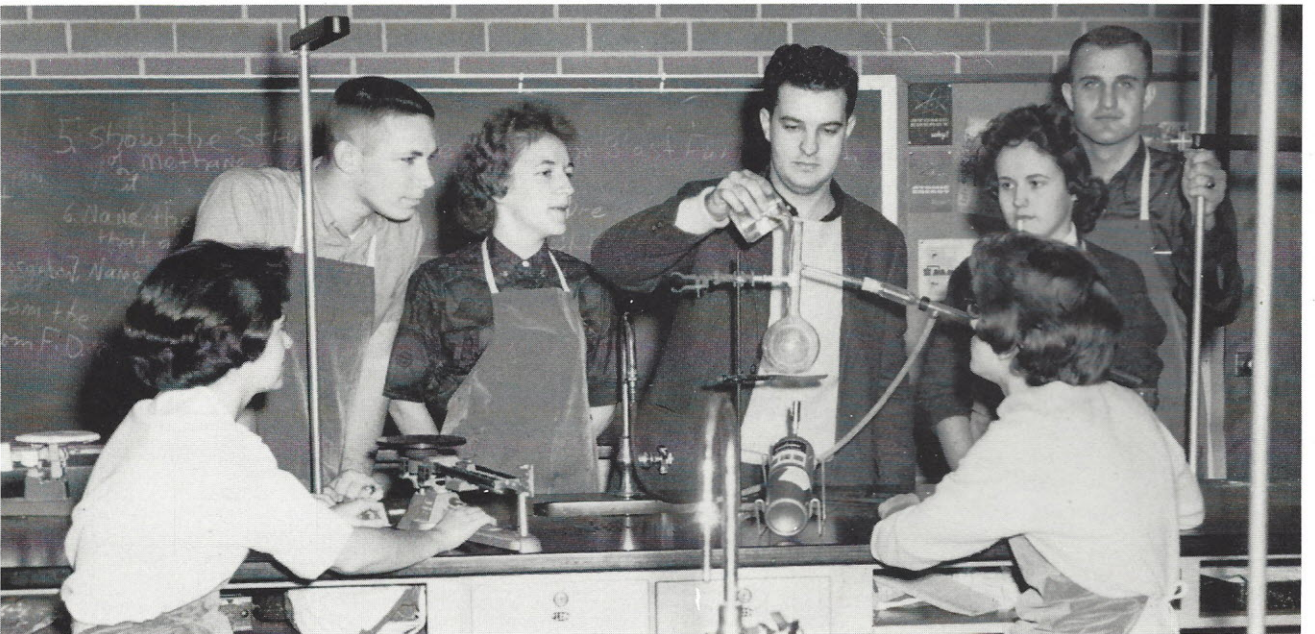

I

is for Intelligence . . . which increases with each bit of knowledge that we absorb . . . and awakens in us the desire for the better, higher things in life . . . lifting us to lofty ideals and ambitions . . . inspiring us to work, to reach the goals that we have set for ourselves . . . It is the fountain from which flows the dreams and hopes that fill our lives, and will ultimately complete them.

O

is for Originality . . . that wonderful "something" through which some of us lighten the busy and often dreary days of others by bringing humor and laughter into them . . . relieving the tensions of tiresome routines of study . . . and, for a while, allows our minds to wander from the tedious, burdensome problems of learning . . . to the lighter, freer side of life.

R

is for Recreation . . . whether in or outside of school, providing a time, place, and opportunity for a general "get-together" . . . when we get to know each other, . . . making new acquaintances and strengthening the old ones . . . forming ties never to be broken . . . and sharing the fun and pleasure that the Seniors take part in for the last time.

is for Sports . . . popular activities, filled with excitement and enthusiasm, . . . which provide another opportunity to promote "togetherness" among the students . . . to increase school spirit, winning or losing, . . . and raise more interest in the affairs of the school as a whole . . . to demonstrate the importance of teamwork, and teach us the meaning of good sportsmanship . . . that we may ever remember it in our years to come.

Dedication

OUR ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL HAS WON RESPECT AND HONOR FROM HIS STUDENTS BECAUSE HIS ACTIONS REVEAL THAT HE NOT ONLY POSSESSES THE QUALITIES OF A GOOD TEACHER BUT ALSO IS A TRUE FRIEND OF YOUNG PEOPLE. HIS EVER-WILLING AND HELPING HAND HAS PROVED THAT "A FRIEND IN NEED IS A FRIEND INDEED." A GENUINE INTEREST IN EACH INDIVIDUAL STUDENT AND HIS UNSELFISH SERVICE HAVE GONE FAR BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY. HIS WARM SMILE, TWINKLING EYES, AND TEASING GRIN ARE BUT A FEW OF THE DEAR THINGS WE SHALL REMEMBER LONG AFTER HIGH SCHOOL DAYS.

BECAUSE OF THESE AND ALL OF HIS HELPFUL DEEDS, WE, THE SENIORS OF 1962, AND THE HALCYON STAFF DEDICATE THIS ANNUAL TO MR. MARION E. STEVENSON.

Winnsboro High's Student Council began its work for 1961-62 during the summer by publishing the Student Handbook. Safety, publicity, and fund-raising committees were appointed to carry out the duties of the council. Our projects were divided into five groups; citizenship, scholarship, religion, and social and financial activities. Since the most important aspect of Student Council is leadership training, delegates attended workshops and the State and Southern conventions.

Their activities have been as follows: 1) Hostess to the District Leadership Work Shop which contained around two hundred people. 2) A rose bush has been planted by each member as a national project. 3) Each member has contributed coupons for the camp fund, and used stamps for tubfrim. 4) In December the F. H. A. and F. F. A. had a joint Christmas Party. 5) They have sold gift soap and had bake sales to raise money to continue their activities and to attend camp. 6) They also attended the State Fair, district, and group meetings.

The National Objective is, "To promote good will through getting to know our neighbors at home and abroad."

The Winnsboro chapter of Distributive Education is enjoying its thirteenth year of growth and progress. This club has received a 3-star plaque for outstanding achievement each year that such a reward has been available. A high-light of the school year is the annual employer-employee banquet. An activities manual is kept for a record. Each student has a job up town, and there is coordination between the manager and the sponsor. All nine of the state contests are entered into during the year. The club members write a program each year, and they appear in assembly and before several civic clubs. A professional meeting is held once each month. Usually, there is a guest speaker. The members attend both district and state conventions. The club is active, and the members are happy.

This year there are sixty-five boys in the F. F. A. Chapter. There are many activities that the boys participated in during the year. Each summer two members represent their chapter at the state F. F. A. Convention held at Clemson.

This past year, two boys from the chapter attended the national convention in Kansas City, Mo. Every summer the boys attend summer camp at Cherry Grove Beach.

They contributed to the F. F. A. Scholarship Loan Fund, which assists members of former members in preparing themselves for a career in the field of agriculture.

The members operate a potato curing house, two sweet potato, and one tomato hotbed. Tomato and potato plants are sold at the school and the profit is used to finance the chapter activities.

Each year the boys select two girls to represent their chapter in the Federation Sweetheart contest. Carolyn Beam will represent the Federation in the state contest this summer.

The Grand March

Prophecy

The year is 1972. We take you now to the 1962 graduating class's reunion. It is at the country club, and all of the members have gathered to see each other after ten years. They seem to be enjoying themselves, exchanging news, and catching up on the changes that have taken place since 1962, ten years ago. Let's join them and find out for ourselves.

As we approach the group, we see something weird, but it's only Butch Varnadore who has just returned from Greenwich Village and hasn't gotten rid of his beard yet.

Moving on, we hear some of the conversation going on between Carolyn Smith, Judy Rhinehardt, and their husbands. Judy can be seen in many of our local Town Theater presentations, and Carolyn finds time from her role of housewife to participate in another career, that of pharmacist in a local drug store.

Cindy Hiott has made a name for herself, following the Hiott family tradition. We find she has made a contribution to humanity in the science field, discovering a cure for hepatitis and several other infectious diseases.

Pinkey Dickey, another honor graduate of 1962, is now professor of French at a small private school in Massachusetts. Mary Barkley Turner is headmistress at this same school for girls, and we find among the faculty members, Marcia Hite, head of the Math Department.

Walking over to another group, we hear an Italian accent and recognize a classmate, Pierina Pielich, who has flown to South Carolina from New York especially for this reunion. She is one of the interpreters in the United Nations, fluently speaking eight native tongues. Talking to her is the famous doctor-turned-politician, Doug Buchanan from Washington, and they are undoubtedly discussing his party's platform as he will soon be running for Congress.

Margaret Smith, now a librarian, informs us that the new book we've been hearing so much about was written by our own classmate, Linda Martin. Her recently published best seller is entitled THE STUDENT'S GUIDE ON HOW TO CUT STUDY HALLS.

Larry Cotton is now the Dean of Students at Tulane, and his major project at the moment, is trying to outlaw drinking among the students.

John McMaster now designs shoe laces, for Bass Weejuns. Another of our classmates, Paul Dove is now president of General Motors; however; he still can be seen driving his red and white Ford convertible.

Henry Gerald and Tommy Hudson are members of a professional ball club, and Keith Brewington, the celebrated sports caster, has filled us in on their latest batting averages.

Paul Grieb and John Taylor, winners of recent golf tournaments, have taken this opportunity to practice their favorite pastime here at the country club. It really brings back memories of high school days seeing Paul and John teeing off again.

Harvey Dickerson, the principal of Winnsboro High School, is discussing the problem of students blocking the hallways, with the local Board. Board members Joe War-moth, Steve Hilton, and Derrill Mixon agree with him that benches with gold-plated seats for couples going steady - gifts of the Class of 1965, only made matters worse.

Becky Motes, who has her own radio program, MOO-MOO WITH MOTES, seems to be having an interesting conversation with the sponsor, Sammy Clowney, who owns a large dairy.

Joyce Coleman is the coach and star for a traveling group of girl basketball players. She and Margie Beckham will soon open the newest of their long chain of health studios.

Billy Castles enjoyed his trip to Europe so much that he decided to go back. He's now conducting guided tours abroad. He frequently sees John Carter at their meeting place in Paris at the Folies Begere. John, after studying art at the Sorbonne, decided to remain in Paris and is a full-fledged artist.

Wayne Summers, who for many years studied chemistry has given up in that field, and is making "half-horse power" engines for a large bulldozer company.

Glenda Bolen, Carolyn Clyburn, Patsy Shaw, Ann Braziel, and Bobbie Lemmon are secretaries for executives in New York, Chicago, and Texas.

Another graduate of '62 who has climbed the ladder of success is Billy Patrick, who is now president of Erskine College. Billy has recently started a scholarship fund for ex-Beta Club members, and, we hear, he has received quite a few anonymous contributions. Georgia Peay is President Patrick's secretary.

Verna Reynolds, Gloria Jean Douglas, and Beverly Powers run a beauty shoppe, and Brenda Stevenson models their new hair styles. Brenda has a French Twist today and we can all remember when it was the rage at Winnsboro High School.

Sandra Evans and Joyce Crawford have their own supper club which is called the "Hunter Club." Mary Jo Turner is the official hostess.

Bobby Fuller is running the Fuller Bull Company which raises prize bulls. Jerome Mincey has invented a rodent repellent which is selling like hot cakes.

Julia Margaret Harden and Brenda Weed who are nurses at Columbia Hospital have recently been to New York where they heard the "Branham Brothers," a singing group composed of Faye and Don Branham, accompanied on the guitar by Margaret Crumpton. Their renditions of folk songs are nationally known. While they were in New York, they happened to see Patricia Rutland and Martha Stevenson, who also work at Columbia Hospital.

We cannot exclude from the circle of famous '62 graduates, Kenneth Davenport, who wrote a book on a subject near and dear to Mr. Gale's heart, THE DECLINE AND FALL OF THE HORSE LAUGH!

Spencer Hewitt and Donald Walker, who are married to graduates of Winnsboro High School, now run a go-cart company, which is very popular with the local natives.

Larry Waters has been a valuable aid to the U. S. Rubber Company, having invented several new contraptions for producing a new fiber, and Butch Collins is employed by the town of Winnsboro; he is in charge of a fleet of mosquito-spraying trucks.

Kay Bass and Alvin Raley are partners in a dancing school which specializes in the new dances - the Jelly Roll, the Honey Pot, and the Itch. John Henry Lewis, the famous chiropractor, takes care of their injured students in his office, which is next door to their studio.

President Nixon has appointed Buddy Turkett and Jerry Viles to be the first men to go to Venus. Now that we've already reached the moon and have regular flights, Robbie Walker is a moon flight stewardess and two moon pilots are Ben Bass and Edward Blair.

Bucky Ellison and Jamie Frazier, Marine drill instructors, couldn't make it to the reunion because they are both facing court martial for drilling troops in the marsh at Parris Island.

Alona Beckham, Helen Collins, and Dot Floyd are raising kangaroos on their farm in Australia, and Ted Nichols is exporting boomerangs that don't come back.

Billy Clowney, Jerry Stevenson, and Bobby Johnson are working on a banana boat to South America. Walter Rutland happens to be chaplain on this vessel.

Dale Holmes is taking the part of the hero in the still very popular Ben Casey T. V. series. There are others in our class whose names are in the spotlights on Broadway - Danny Ballentine, starring in the lead role of MACBETH and Elaine Dove is his accomplice in this classic drama.

Ruth Boone, Libby D. Thigpen, Pat D. Swygert, Mary Frances Mattox, and Jane Pearson are housewives who have formed a kindergarten. With the help of Barbara Jean Smith, Jeannie Ramsey, and Gale Haygood, they are forming a special play school upon request of those Seniors who didn't want to leave high school.

Marie Starnes runs an advice column in the local NEWS AND HERALD entitled, "Ask Marie."

Reginald McPhatter is minister of a small church. Anne Brown is the first woman from Fairfield County in the House of Representatives.

Carolyn Neely is in the WACS and has returned from Japan to be with us. Johnnie Ray Wilson is also back from Japan and is teaching classes of Judo to local students.

Diane Stokes, a famous lady architect, recently designed the brand new Winnsboro High School Auditorium, which is fine, but not quite big enough.

Theron Wilson is driving a Scenic Tour Bus which specializes in musical tours. The music is furnished by Theron's bass solos.

All of the refreshment for this reunion came from the Wilson Bakery in Winnsboro, owned and operated by Belvia and Eliza Wilson.

Although we hate to leave this reunion of friends and classmates, we must return to our respective jobs. Sam has to get back to his insurance business, and I must return to my job in South Africa as a member of the Peace Corps. There have been many changes made since our Class of 1962 was together, and the future holds many more. As life goes on, changes are made, and we can't help wondering how we will appear ten years from now - that is, in 1982.

Last Will and Testament

We, the graduating class of Winnsboro High School, in the year of our Lord, Nineteen Hundred Sixty-Two, being in a state of outstanding physical condition and having the quality of superior intelligence, do hereby declare this to be our Last Will and Testament.

CLASS POEM

In the years to come, dear Winnsboro,
We will hold our memories dear;
Of the firm but gentle learning
That we gained here every year.

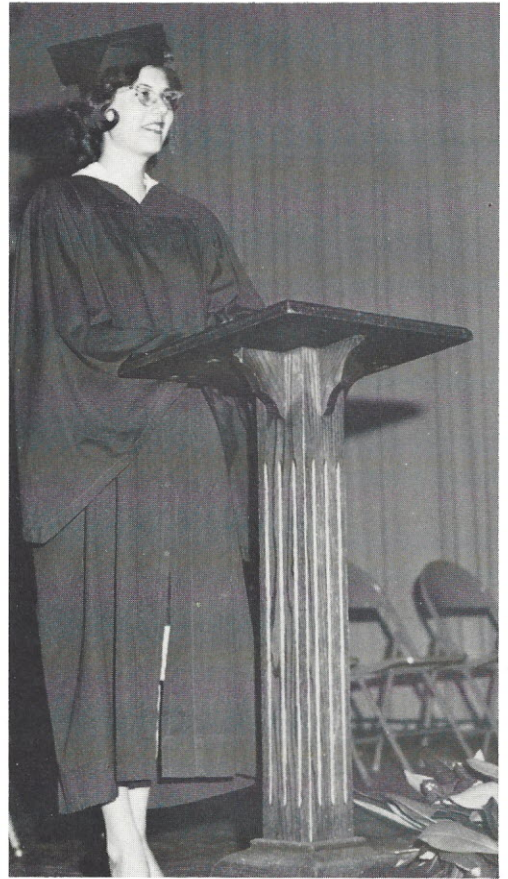

Tonight our thoughts drift backward
To the days when we began,
The long and tedious struggle
That is coming to an end.

And now we say in leaving
A word straight from each heart:
Our thanks to you, our teachers,
For doing well your part.

We thank also our parents,
For love and tender care,
For wisdom and for guidance
None can with them compare.

We look into the future
With hopes and ideals high,
To make our world a better place
With effort we shall try.

The year is drawing to a close;
Our carefree days are through,
And though we go our separate ways,
Our hearts remain with you.

Class History

Graduation . . . the climax of five wonderful high school years.

Members of the class of '62 entered the eighth grade at various schools in Fairfield County - Blackstock, Greenbrier, Jenkinsville, Monticello, Mount Zion, and Ridgeway. Little did we dream then that we would unite at Winnsboro High School in our Junior year.

As eighth graders, we were excited, yet somewhat afraid, of the "newness" of high school life. Eighth grade initiation was a time we'll never forget. It made us wonder whether we'd EVER be as grown-up as the Seniors.

In the Ninth Grade, our fears were gone; we really belonged. In fact, we felt quite superior to the lowly sub-freshmen.

Our Sophomore Year meant more interest in extracurricular activities. Growing up no longer seemed an impossible goal.

Our Junior Year was one of the most memorable of our lives. We came to our new alma mater and united with classmates who have become close friends. We helped to organize various clubs and our two publications, THE HALCYON and "Consolidated Comments." We worked hard to carry out our Junior-Senior theme, "City of Lights," and to present the Junior Class Play, "Aunt Abby Answers An Ad."

This, our Senior Year, has been equally memorable. Our play, "If a Man Answers," was a successful presentation. This spring we were entertained by the Juniors at the Junior-Senior Prom, "The Peppermint Lounge." We are proud that one of our Senior sponsors, Miss Kathleen Lemmon, wrote the Winnsboro High Alma Mater during our Senior Year.

As Seniors we have had responsibilities as well as privileges, and we are pleased that several of our classmates have won scholarships to various colleges and that many of our class members have shown indications of promising futures by their academic records.

Yes, our high school days are over, and the time has come for the Class of 1962 to enter the adult world. We leave our alma mater feeling deeply grateful to those who have helped during these high school years to prepare us for that world.

AH!! The good ole days!!!

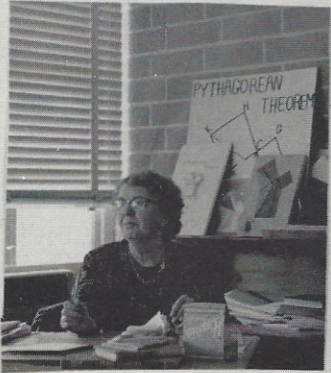

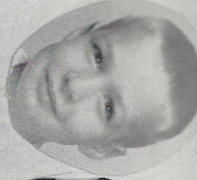

Well strike me down!
It's ole John C.!!!

Ugh!!! Tomato soup!

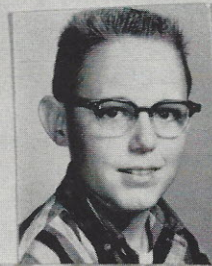

"Have I read WHAT??"

"Our beautiful thought for the day is..."

"WANTED"

Whoops! We goofed!!

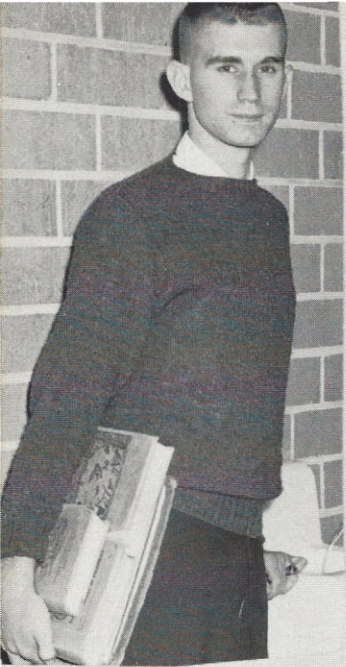

Could it be the Bobsey Twins?

"Now" take Shelly."

Tomorrow we've got to get organized!

"Save me a seat at Beta Club."

It's "Mouthpiece"!

To inspire the football team...

Peek-a-boo...I'm watching you!

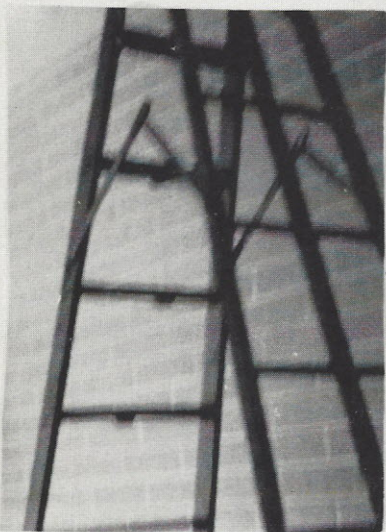

EEK! Rats!

I give up; What did you win?

Linda always has liked to show her knees!

Who believes in bad luck?

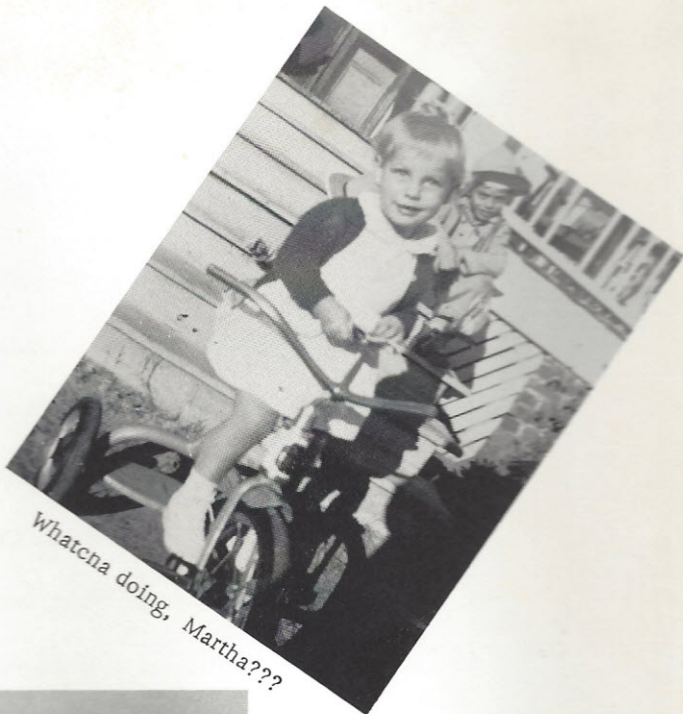

How many hours did you give today?

Kick it out, children!

Jeremiah Peabody's poly-unsaturated quick-dissolving, fast-acting, pleasant tasting green and purple pills!

Whatcha doing, Martha???

Ye ol' parking lot!

One of our many sock hops.

I don't know, but I believe you're rushing things, Dove!!!

Introduction of our Alma Mater

Farewell

We would like to bid a fond farewell to one whom Winnsboro High School will never forget. Mr. Purvis W. Collins has led us successfully through the first difficult days, and has paved the way for future harmony and congeniality among the administration, faculty, and students.

Your work and help to us all, Mr. Collins, has been greatly appreciated by everyone. We will miss your quiet, but strong leadership, your understanding, and your unfailing patience with our problems and concerns.

We are certain that wherever you go - you will be welcomed, and whatever you undertake - will be a success. We wish you good fortune and continued happiness in the future!

MR. PURVIS W. COLLINS

Principal of Winnsboro High School

Dearest "Cuz" "Ma" Mary,
It is too bad that you have to leave town because of unexpected things.
But, that's the way the fall bounces and I know you didn't mean to get in all that trouble.
Have a good time
at St. Mary's Home for Unwed Mothers!
