

The White Oak Association Reformed Presbyterian Church was organized March 16, 1877 with thirteen persons listed as charter members. Prior to the organization, services had been held in the school house.

The quaint church which has been renovated in recent years is known for its striking white pews.

Features