

CLASSES

The success of a high school depends upon the make-up of its student body. These students will serve as the adults of tomorrow and lead our community in its effort to progress.

The student's aims and goals combined with education and a little bit of fun all go together to make Winnsboro High a great school.

