

ADVERTISEMENTS

Seasons change; and likewise, the products of this vast world change. To keep the world informed of these many changes, advertisement is essential in our lives. The people of this world must be informed and must know.

The remaining portion of this annual is therefore dedicated to the merchants of Fairfield County, who have so earnestly given their support to W.H.S. Without their help, the publication of this annual would not be possible.

