

Miss Faucett and Mrs. Ross

have found that their counseling has proved beneficial to many students throughout the years. Helping students make decisions and solve problems is a common practice which leaves them inwardly satisfied just knowing that they could help an individual in need. Their services to the student body range from helping a student decide what would best accommodate his personal desires and interests after graduation to giving a student a much needed paper clip.

Top left: Miss Faucett discusses with Marshall Pearson many possible careers that would be perfect for her.

Bottom left: GUIDANCE COUNSELOR: Mrs. Maude F. Ross.

Top right: Mrs. Ross checks Van Belton's record.

Bottom right: GUIDANCE COUNSELOR: Miss Sara Faucett.