

ENGLISH

The English Department, as in past years, has been mainly concerned with the development of student character. The teachers of this department have done their utmost to expose students to material that will someday be beneficial in their social development. Through the use of records and films, the English teachers are better equipped to aid the student in his learning. One fundamental which most of these teachers stress is writing. Through writing, the student develops a more mature manner of expressing himself.

Mrs. Estelle B. Butler
Mrs. Barbara M. Harmon

Mrs. Mary B. Kirkland
Mrs. Eleanor S. Milling

Mrs. Rebecca Pope
Miss Margaret A. Roseborough

Mr. McKinley Wheeler

