

SPRING DANCE MARCH 31, 1973

The Spring Dance was the first of its kind at Winnsboro High School. It was truly a night to remember in the hearts and minds of many students. This gala affair gave students a delightful break from the routine of daily school duties. The many teachers who chaperoned also considered this "prelude to spring" quite a lively experience.

