DEDICATION

We, the Senior members of the Halcyon staff, dedicate the 1973-74 edition of the Halcyon to Mrs. Eleanor Milling and Mrs. Marie Ingram. These two women were responsible for adding much to the success of our high school years. Not only were they senior sponsors, but they were also friends, and always showed interest in all that we undertook. No problem was ever too small or too great for them to listen and help solve. We shall always be grateful to Mrs. Milling and Mrs. Ingram for their deep concern for our well-being both educationally and personally. Thank you Mrs. Milling and Mrs. Ingram.

LIFE AT WHS

Don't give me no jive, child!

Good food, good meat, good gosh — let's eat!

Try me — if you dare!

Would you believe that I'm "On Top of the World"?

Don't shoot! I give up.

I should not have eaten that last plate of beans.

Okay, who said that?

Chow time! Dig in, boys — 1, 2, 3 — GO!

Cheer up, girls. Your time will come soon enough!

STOP! That's no way to kill roaches.

Are you sure you aren't ticklish?

Mr. Roache actually has dimples.

Keep on pluggin' guys; you're practically there.

If you don't tell, they'll never know!

That's the way it is! Truly oohley, oohley is . . .

WHS's big, bad blockade busters!

Fearsome Threesome??

Are you sure we aren't playing "Follow the Leader"?

Now, Laney, this won't hurt a bit. Trust me!

ALMA MATER

Dear Winnsboro, oh how we love they name:
May we forever strive to bring thee fame;
Scholarship, pride, and faith in God above,
Compose our standards, so we love.
Your fidelity still lingers in our hearts,
And from thy memories may we ne'er depart.
Dear Winnsboro, we love you, more than words
can say,
As we pledge our loyalty in this humble way;
With your standards we'll abide, and your precepts too,
Through our lives, you'll be our guide,
Winnsboro, we love you, we love you,
Winnsboro.
