

Juniors! Yes, you. Are you surprised? You're not? Then why are looking like that? We are not going to hurt you. We only want to show you some of the things that we've observed of you during the school year of 1974-75.

We've seen you Juniors at study . . .
"Wow! Isn't that amazing what one can learn. I didn't know that Bugs Bunny discovered America."

We've seen you Juniors at play . . .
"I feel that since we'll be Seniors next year, I feel that I would rather settle for a handshake than a kiss."

We've seen you Juniors sneaking away.
"He! He! He! What do you girls think you are doing? You'd better go back before I tell!"
That's the wrong direction, Violette!"
