

A little more of buzzard lungs will do the trick.

This point blot turned out to be a real fly.

Macbeth, how do you do?

Can you believe it? I made a "B" in English!

Sit down! Can't you see I'm being watched?

One small step
for Man
Two giant leaps
for Mankind

These were the famous words quoted when the astronauts stepped upon the surface of the moon. This marked a new turn in history. We the graduating class of 1974-75 are leaving behind our footsteps. We, too, shall mark a new turn in History. For us the sky is the limit.
