

DEDICATION

In every play there are people who are not the main stars, yet who leave a lasting impression on the other members of the cast because of their sincerity and concern. We would like to bring a special recognition to two outstanding people who have worked especially hard to make our play a success. Mrs. Lucy McGuirt and Mr. Clarence Reid have been great supporting actors of our play.

We appreciate these people and thank them for their help in enriching each of our lives.