

History

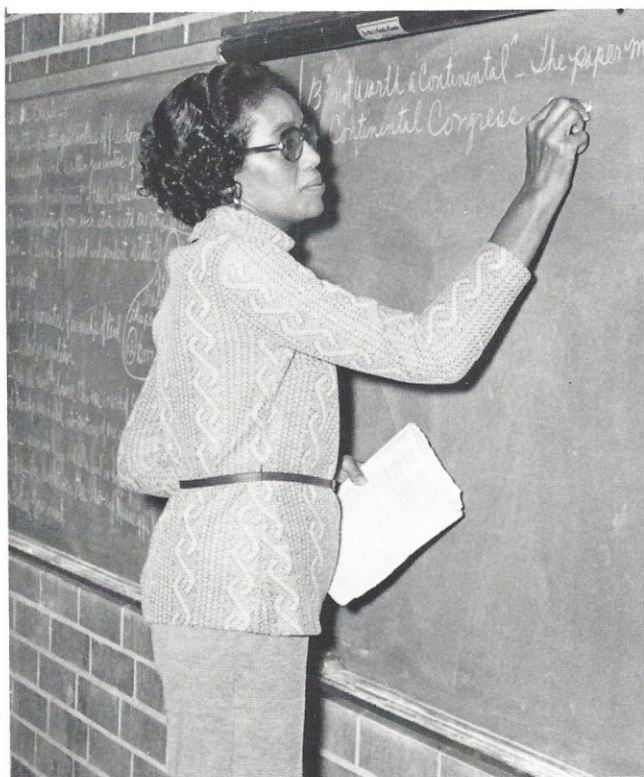

This History Department endeavors to present historical backgrounds in an interesting and invigorating way. Students are exposed to foreign cultures beneficial to them because they help them to better understand the problems of modern society. Studying history also helps students to be better prepared as citizens of their nation.

Mr. Roache enjoys teaching U.S. History and Economics.

Mr. Hightower shares many experiences with his classes.

Mrs. Brown helps her students learn more about the government.