

Mrs. Brannen does a very fine job as librarian at W. H. S. She assists students in finding material for their classes or for their reading enjoyment.

Mrs. Pauling also works in the library. She, too, is always willing to help students find what they want.

Mrs. Bass teaches typing. Under Mrs. Bass's supervision, the students learn to type for their own personal use or for school work.