Who are These Huguenot Ancestors and How Do I Find Them

Most people don't think they have a Huguenot ancestor. I often find that the ancestor is hiding right in front of their face. You just have to know where to look and how to look. The National Huguenot Society is doing a good job of helping people find their ancestors. There are some good resources out there, but most people don't know what they are. Let me tell you a little bit about the Huguenots and how to find your Huguenot ancestor.

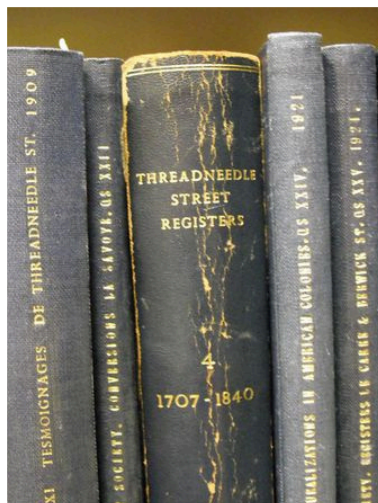

Janet was born and raised in Macon, Georgia. Her parents, Shirley Ann Bloodworth and David Melson Butler, were born in Macon and both of her grandfathers were attorneys in Macon. She graduated from Stratford Academy in Macon in 1975. She attended Converse College in Spartanburg, SC and graduated from the University of Georgia in Athens with an A.B. degree in Psychology in June 1979. She did graduate work at Mercer University in Macon.

Janet was married to high school and college sweetheart the late William "Billy" O. Walker of Macon in August 1979. They have one adult married son with two sons, and one adult married daughter with two daughters, all of Macon.

Janet has vast business experience as a Forest Landowner and Manager of over 6000 acres of timber and kaolin. She is a former Support and former Lead Therapist with Severely Emotionally Disturbed Adolescents in a Psychoeducational Program. She is a former Director of Children's Ministries at Mulberry Street United Methodist Church and a former retail owner.
