

2016 SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

David Glen Waller is the son of Kandice Shuford Waller and is a descendant of Samuel. He attended Mt. Tabor High School in Winston-Salem, NC where he was involved in the Crosby Scholars; a group that does community service in the Winston-Salem/Forsyth area. A few of his projects were helping to raise money for a young boy diagnosed with cancer and feeding the homeless in downtown Winston-Salem. He also has gone on mission trips with his church to help in other countries.

David will be attending Campbell University in Buies Creek, NC. He plans to major in Graphic Arts Design and minor in Youth Ministry. Music is a large part of his life and will be involved in the band at Campbell University.

Zachary Taylor Sipe is the son of Phillip and Kimberly Sipe and is a descendant of Samuel. He attended Bunker Hill High School in Claremont, NC where he was a BETA Member for four years and was accepted into the National Technical Honor Society by keeping a high GPA. He played JV and Varsity Baseball for Bunker Hill High School and ran cross country. He also served in the Boy Scout program for five years. Zachary helps out the deacons in his church during service.

Zachary will be attending CVCC (Catawba Valley Community College) in Hickory, NC for two years earning an Associate Degree. He then plans to transfer to a higher college to obtain a Bachelor's Degree; hopefully to become a CPA.
