

The 1950 reunion of the Killian family was held at Salem Church in Lincoln County. The meeting was opened by singing "Faith of Our Fathers". Prayer was then offered by Rev. Coome.

Mr. J. Yates Killian talked about Old Saint Paul's being the burial ground of the Killian family, and it is there that Andreas Killian, the pioneer, is buried in an unmarked grave.

It was suggested by Mr. R. L. Heyner that a committee be appointed to raise funds to erect a marker to the pioneer and the Killian family at Old Saint Paul's. This was then offered as a motion and was carried. The following committee was appointed and it was empowered to select the marker in an appropriate amount of not less than five hundred dollars; work out the inscription and make out all plans for the unveiling at the next years reunion:

~~Dora Rhodes~~

R. L. Heyner

Guy Killian

Mrs. Dora Rhodes Carpenter

Jesse Sigmon

John Carpenter

J. Yates Killian, the wives of the men listed above were also made members of the committee.

Mr. J. Y. Killian and Mr. R. L. Heyner explained the genealogical data forms which were passed out to all present.

Motion by Mr. Jesse Sigmon was carried to have the next meeting ^{and the unveiling} at Old Saint Pauls.

Mr. Jesse Sigmon made a motion that a unanimous vote be cast ^{by the Secretary} selecting Mr. Sam Rhodes President. Miss Gladys Stine was elected Secretary and she later resigned because she went to Washington D. C., to live and _____ was appointed Secretary.
