From the Editor

This newsletter is later than we intended. We have been having computer trouble and were beginning to believe that we would not be able to get the newsletter done. Unfortunately I think some of the newsletter files were lost, so we go with what we have.

The September reunion is just around the corner (8th, 9th, and 10th) and we invite all who are related to Andreas Killian or are interested in the Killian family to join us. I would especially like to encourage the younger Killians to come and learn about family while there's still someone to pass it along to you. There will be several people who attend the reunion each year who are very knowledgeable about the Killians and related families.

We normally meet at Aunt Bessie's on Friday evening, have a good meal and catch up on the latest happenings in each other's lives. Over the course of 3 days, we have the opportunity to renew old friendships and make new friends.

The June Reunion at Ramsours Mill was HOT. Linda Hoyle dressed in period attire participated in the parade Saturday Morning. Barbeque Chicken was served for lunch. My wife Cheryl passed on the chicken, and made a meal of coleslaw and baked beans. James Green also came decked out in 18th century clothing and attended the DAR Wreath Ceremony. As I said it was hot and as much as Cheryl wanted to do the Ghost Walk, she chose to go back to a nice air-conditioned hotel room.

The re-enactors were in colonial dress and carried out activities from the colonial period, cooking, tomahawk throwing and cannon firing. They were great with the kids, letting them participate in a cannon firing demo.

For those that came by, we would like to say THANK YOU and for those that did not make it, WE MISSED YOU. See you in September.

List of Daniel Killians Born Before 1800

Compiled by Wayne Milam and Cheryl Killian

It is very difficult to keep all the Daniel Killians of 18th century apart. The following list has been compiled in an effort to gain more information these men, their wives and families. Your additions, corrections or comments are welcome and appreciated.

1. Daniel Killian, the Son of Andreas married Osley Baker on 15 JAN 1787. Samuel Killian bondsman. The 1830 Census of Buncombe County, North Carolina shows his age between 80 and 90, born between 1740-1750. Was Daniel almost 40 when he married Osley Baker? If so was Osley his Second wife? His second wife was not Margaret Watts.
2. Daniel Killian born about 1766 married Armina Gwaltney. Daniel died after 1860 in Cherokee County, North Carolina. Could he be the Grandson of Andreas and Son of Leonard?
3. Daniel Killian born in 1777 in Rowan/ Iredell County, North Carolina. Married Mary Watts. Both buried in Turner Cemetery in Maggie Valley, North Carolina. From Yates Killian's booklet; the Son of James Watts Killian was living in Little Rock, Ark. in 1925 and Yates had a letter from him "stating that his grandfather was Daniel Killian and that his great-great-grandfather was, Andrew Killian, JR., settled in Iredell County, N.C., and was twice married" Based on Yates Killian this Daniel would be the and Great-Grandson of Andreas, Grandson of Andrew SR and Son of Andrew Killian, JR. The research of Bill Hinds and Wayne Milam placed doubts on this 1925 letter. Dose anyone have information to support Yates Killian? DNA supports Daniel is a descendant of Andreas.
4. Daniel Killion born before 1785. Married Mary Smith of Rowan County, North Carolina 29 Mar 1803, William Monroe bondsman, Jno Monroe witness. Was Mary Watts first married to a Smith and this is the marriage of Daniel Killian and Mary Watts? Since James Watt Killion was born in 1803 this does not seem plausible. So, is this the Grandson of Johann Michael Kilian?
5. Daniel Killian born in 1790 in North Carolina. Married Mary Bost. They died in Dekalb County, Alabama buried in Killian Cemetery. Could this be the Great-Grandson of Andreas, Grandson of Leonard and Son of Andrew Killian Sen. of the 1800 census of Lincoln County NC?
6. Daniel Killian born 1793 in Buncombe County, North Carolina Grandson of Andreas and Son of Daniel and Osley Killian. He married Mary Washam. Both are buried in Noontootla Cemetery in Fannin County, Georgia.
7. Daniel Killian born about 1796 in Lincoln County, North Carolina, Great-Grandson of Andreas, Grandson of Leonard, and Son of Mathias Killian. Married Elizabeth Gwaltney of Lincoln County 28 Oct 1815, Nathan Gwaltney bondsman. V McBee witness
8. Daniel Killian born about 1798 in Lincoln County, North Carolina, and Great- Grandson of Andreas, Grandson of John, and Son of Philip Killian and Mary Hockins.

Did we leave any Daniels off the list?
Is Armina Gwaltney related to Elizabeth Gwaltney?
Do you have any answers?
Do you have any Corrections?

Queries

A John Killian who was convicted of manslaughter in Paulding County, Georgia in 1834 at the age of 30 and was given a five-year sentence but was pardoned in October of 1837. The only John Killian I think this could be is the Son of Daniel and Mary Watts Killian. Does anyone have information on this John Killian born abt 1804?

Wayne Milam wmilam1@juno.com

My dad's gggrandmother was Susannah Killian b. 1827 NC married Wiley Bess, Warren Co., TN 1845. Susannah's parents were Samuel Killian and Lucinda Hill. Samuel Killian s/o Samuel Killian, Sr. 1760 Lincoln Co., NC and Barbara Hager s/o Andreas Killian b:1702. I received this information from a Bess cousin but I have not researched it. Would love to prove Dad's descent from Andreas. Audy Murphy has been Dad's hero since they were both in WWII and Dad does not think it possible that he could be related to Audy Murphy. This is another story I came across online; that Audy Murphy's mother was an Andreas Killian descendant.

William "Will" Joseph Killian (1863-1928)

By Thelma Worthley

I just found out about the Killian DNA testing, and would like to know more about it. I have 2 male Killian cousins that I might persuade to have the test done.

We have not found any link yet to the Andreas Killian line. I have not been able to trace further back than my great-grandfather, William "Will" Joseph Killian (1863-1928) who married Amanda "Mandy" Priscilla Hill (1870-1935). They were married in 1889 in Mountain View, Howell County, Missouri. They were both born in Illinois and both died and are buried in Little Cemetery, Seminole County, Oklahoma. My grandmother was Cora Bell Killian Combs (1890 - 1984), daughter of William and Amanda.

Some family stories were:

Supposedly Wm. Joseph's father was named Joseph and his mother was Mary, both of Illinois. He also had a brother, named Bob, and a sister, Susan or Sally who married a Knight and moved from the Little area to Sepulpa, OK. Susan died "young" was another note.

Per one source: " William Joseph's first wife and two children were killed in a famous Indian massacre and he later married Amanda Hill."

Also per 1910 Census, Amanda was William's second wife.

Per other sources:

"William Joseph had red hair."

"The Killians were from Illinois. Moved from Illinois to Missouri, to Arkansas, to Oklahoma."

"At the time of Wm. Joseph's death they lived between Stroud and Davenport, OK."

"Killians came from West Plains, MO."

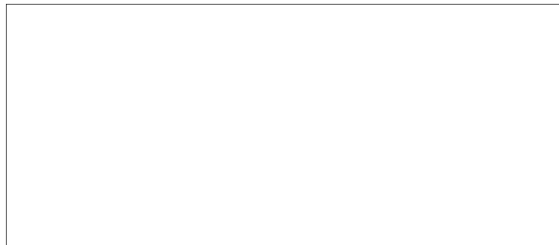

"Wm. Joseph died of pneumonia. He was Black Irish from Ireland."

You have my permission to share any and all of the above information with any Killian descendant.
