A program of traditional wedding music was beautifully presented by Mrs. W.T. Sprott, organist, Mrs. John V. Nicholson, Jr., pianist, and Lavonne Bazemore, trumpeter. Mr. Bazemore also rendered a solo with organ accompaniment, and Miss Rebecca Mattox of Ridgeway sang "Because". A duet was performed by Miss Mattox, soprano, and Mrs. Hennies Pope, alto, and Mrs. Pope also gave a solo performance.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in her gown of white satin. Pearled Alencon lace accented the bodice and the yoke was made of schiffli lace with a wedding band neckline. The bodice featured long, tapered sleeves of satin and lace. The soft, full satin skirt which fell gracefully from the fitted bodice, was trimmed with matching lace appliques on the front of the dress and ended with a semi-cathedral train. Her veil of bridal illusion was edged with Alencon lace and pearls and the center of the veil was appliqued with matching Alencon lace and pearls. The veil was attached to a semi-Camelot cap, trimmed with matching lace and pearls. She carried a small mother-of-pearl Bible which was brought to her from the Holy Land by her mother. The lace cover on her Bible was handmade by her sister, Mrs. Duncan Wright Tyson, Junior. Her Bible was covered with cascading white roses with a white hybrid orchid. Her only jewelry was a string of pearls which belonged to her late grandmother, Mrs. Gary Franklin Bass, Senior, and small pearl earbobs, a gift from her father. In her shoe she wore the traditional sixpence, which was also a gift for this special occasion.

Miss Constance Joan Pope, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and matron-of-honor was Mrs. Duncan Wright Tyson, Jr., sister of the bride, of Florence.

Bridal attendants were Misses Joyce Denise Johnson of Ridgeway, Grace Lee Ila Wilson of Pendleton, Ellen D. Bell, sister of the groom, of Columbia; Mrs. Richard Byrne, sister of the groom, of Winnsboro, and Miss Margaret Anne Bailey, cousin of the groom, also of Winnsboro.

Miss Kimberly Carlene Peak of Winnsboro was honorary bridesmaid.

Little Miss Elizabeth Fields Tyson of Florence, niece of the bride, was flower girl.

Mr. William Duke Bell, Jr., served as his son's best man. Usher-groomsmen were William Duke Bell III, of Augusta, Ga., brother of the groom; Second Lt. John Michael Bozard of Winnsboro and Fort Sill, Okla.; Virgil Claude Harrison of Winnsboro; Cole L. Wylie Shaw, Jr., uncle of the groom, of Winnsboro; Wallace Zealey Martin of Winnsboro and Phillip D'Ambaogie of Martinez, Ga.

Master William Fredrick Pope, Junior, cousin of the bride, of Winnsboro, served as ring bearer.

Immediately following the wedding ceremony, a reception was given by the parents of the bride at the old armory on Park Street.

Mrs. Mark Frost of Great Falls and Mrs. George Benjamin Brazell III, of Columbia, kept the bride's register.

Greeting the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Gary Franklin Bass, Junior, and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Carroll Pope, Senior.

Mrs. Thomas Wayne Peterson, Mrs. Julius Cameron, Mrs. William Johnson, and Mrs. Virgil Harrison poured punch.

After the traditional first cutting of the cake by the bride and groom, Mrs. James Wiggins, Mrs. Cole L. Wylie Shaw, Jr., and Mrs. Edward Byrne served the bride's cake.

Gary Franklin Bass, III, cousin of the bride, entertained the guests during the reception with music. After the traditional bridal couple and father and bride dances, the guests enjoyed an evening of dancing.

Assisting in serving were William DeHines of Newberry, Miss Sarah Faucett, Mrs. Angus Stewart, Mrs. John Davis McLeod, Mrs. Heyward Cooper, and Mrs. Jimmy Ray Douglas.

Acting hostesses for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. William H. Wylie, Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Pope, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Frank Timms, Col. and Mrs. Ralph Boys, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Byrne, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. James Wiggins, James W. Martin, and Mrs. Martha A. Bass.

Mrs. Bell chose for her going-away outfit a dress of royal blue rayon. The fitted bodice was accented with soft pleats across the shoulders and capped sleeves. The slim, gathered skirt featured patch pockets and a side kick pleat, with which she used off-white accessories. Her corsage was the orchid lifted from her Bible.

Upon returning, they will make their home in Augusta, Ga.

Mrs. David Edward Brandenburg

Wed December 29

Miss Lisa Louise Hudson and David Edward Brandenburg were united in marriage on December 29, 1984, in Gordon Memorial United Methodist Church. Officiating was the Rev. Risher Brabham, director of Wesley Foundation, Winthrop College, Rock Hill.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. T.W. Gladden, organist.

The groom had his father as best man, and usher-groomsmen were Mr. Michael A. Hudson, brother of the bride, of Winnsboro; and Mr. Harry E. Edwards of Creston.

Mrs. Robert S. Mason, sister of the bride, of Winnsboro, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Edith Ann Brandenburg of Ellore, sister of the groom; and Miss Lisa Parker of Winnsboro.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a formal wedding gown of ivory silk organza and Alencon lace. The bodice of lace featured a scalloped bateau neckline, and long, fitted sleeves of English net and matching lace. The full skirt and cathedral-length train of organza were accented with appliques of lace and finished with a wide hemline flounce edged in scalloped Alencon and val lace. Her matching cathedral-length veil of bridal illusion and Alencon lace fell from a Juliet cap of matching lace and small silk flowers. She carried a bouquet of white carnations, white spider daisy pompons, and red rosebuds interspersed with baby's breath and greenery.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church social hall.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Ross Hudson. She is a graduate of Winnsboro High School and is now a sophomore at Winthrop College, Rock Hill. She will continue her education at Winthrop.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David McIver Brandenburg. He graduated from Calhoun Academy, St. Matthews, and attended the University of South Carolina. He is employed with T.E. Jones and Son Furniture Company of York.
