

Aimwell Breaks Ground for $15,000 Education Plant

A ground-breaking ceremony was held Sunday, August 18, at the Aimwell Presbyterian Church in Ridgeway for the erection of a $15,000.00 educational building. This was part of the Homecoming festivities at which time the Church celebrated its 173rd birthday.

Left to right: Eddie Squirewell, contractor awarded the contract; Aram M. Davis, chairman of the board of deacons; Mrs. J. W. Starnes, the oldest Sunday School teacher; the Reverend Joe Beale, pastor; John P. Jones, representing the officers of Aimwell Church as building supervisor; Robert Arndt, deacon, architect who drew the plans. (Photo by Charles Oed)