

CENTENNIAL SUNDAY

The special offering taken this morning will be equally divided between a continuing program of evangelism, and an outreaching mission of help to our sister Churches of the Presbyterian and Reformed Faith Throughout the World wherever disaster has struck through wars, floods, famine, or other distress. As we observe the 100th anniversary of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, with gratitude, repentance, and faith for the future, give.

In the new century is the door of opportunity to be entered. With an enlarged vision through the Holy Spirit, renewed effort with the strength He imparts, and a dedicated commitment to the coming of Christ's Kingdom.

Every Christian should find his place of service in the program of the Church, in a sincere effort to be an active channel whereby the prayer which our Lord taught His disciples may be fully answered.

"Our Father, Who art in heaven,
Hallowed be Thy name.
Thy Kingdom come,
Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil,
For Thine is the Kingdom,
And the power,
And the glory,
Forever.

Amen."

*INVOCATION AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

ORGAN INTERLUDE (Those waiting may be seated)

Greetings from Congaree Presbytery Elder Henry S. Johnson

*PROCESSIONAL "The Church's One Foundation" Chimes

(The Congregation will proceed to the front of the manse.)

Minister: Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it. I was glad when they said unto me, let us go into the house of the Lord.

People: Our feet shall stand within thy gates, O Jerusalem.

Minister: I will lift up my voice in the sanctuary.

People: I will praise him with songs of gladness, who is the rock of my salvation.

Minister: O come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the Lord our Maker.

People: For he is our God; and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.

PRAYER - Almighty and eternal God, who delightest in the joy and peace of thy people, and dost ever call them by Thy Holy Spirit into life and liberty; receive us now, we entreat thee, as we assemble to offer unto thee the love of our hearts and the service of our hands. Grant that thy goodness, which has crowned all our days, may prompt us to behold thy glory in this manse our hands have builded unto thee. As we worship here, let the words of our mouths and the meditations of our hearts be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, our Strength and our Redeemer. Amen.

BURNING OF THE MORTGAGE by the board of Deacons.

Minister: God our Heavenly Father, having in His grace brought to its consummation our work of preparing for the honor of His Holy Name a building designed to provide comfortable living quarters for our minister, we are now gathered together in His presence for the purpose of consecrating this building, by a solemn act of worship, to its proper and sacred use.

EVENING SERVICE WILL BE TONIGHT AT 7:30 O'clock

YOUTH FELLOWSHIP GROUPS will meet at 6:30.

Welcome to our Church. It is a happy privilege indeed to have Mr. Henry S. Johnson, an elder in the First Church of Columbia and an honored member of the Presbytery's Church Extension Committee.

Words cannot express the feeling of a minister's heart after laboring six years among God's People. Aimwell is a church at work and it is a privilege and a joy to begin my seventh year as your pastor. Mrs. Beale joins me in saying thank you for the way you have taken us into your homes and treated us as one of the family. God only knows what great and wonderful things are in store for us as we expect great things from a Great God and attempt to do his will in deep gratitude for all His benefits unto us.
