World-Wide Communion Sunday

An Invitation to the Lord's Supper

"Come, not to testify that you are righteous, but that you sincerely love our Lord Jesus Christ, and desire to be His true disciple; come, not because you are strong, but because you are weak; come, not because you have any claim on Heaven's reward, but because in your frailty and sin you stand in need of mercy and help . . .

. . . before the throne of the Heavenly Father and the cross of the Redeemer make your humble confession of sin, and pray for strength to do and to bear the holy and blessed will of God."

—Frank Laubach

Symbols of Spiritual Nourishment

After God has once received us into his family, and not only so as to admit us among his servants, but to number us with his children—in order to fulfill the part of a most excellent father, solicitous for his offspring, he also undertakes to sustain and nourish us as long as we live; and not content with this, he has been pleased to give us a pledge, as a further assurance of this never-ceasing liberality. For this purpose, therefore, by the hand of his only begotten Son, he has favored his Church with another sacrament, a spiritual banquet, in which Christ testifies himself to be the bread of life, to feed our souls for a true and blessed immortality . . . The signs are bread and wine, which represent to us the invisible nourishment which we receive from the body and blood of Christ.

—John Calvin

WELCOME TO THE LORD'S SUPPER

World Communion Service, which is being observed today, is vastly significant and important for it brings the comfort and strength of Communion to the worldwide Church as well as to particular churches and to individual members. Where Christ is, there is the bond which binds churches and Christians together. Our Christian faith is that Christ is here at the table as we celebrate the Communion of the Lord's Supper. We may differ in many things from our brethren in other nations and in other denominations, but we stand side by side with all who proclaim Christ as King of Kings and Lord of Lords.

** The Presbyterian Men's Convention will open on Thursday, October 10th in Miami. Outstanding speakers will include Dr. Billy Graham and Dr. Louis H. Evans. The theme of the Convention is "All the Way for Christ."

SESSION MEETING TODAY - Immediately following the Morning Worship Service.

NEXT SUNDAY IS LAYMANS SUNDAY

Laymans Sunday has been planned to correspond with the Men's Convention at Miami, so that the men of the Church can take their Pastors with them. Your pastor plans to leave Wednesday A.M. for Miami, to return on Monday Oct. 14th in time to have the devotional for the P.T.A.
