1. When the trumpet of the Lord shall sound, and time shall be no more, And the morning breaks, eternal, bright and fair; When the saved of earth shall gather over on the other shore, And the roll is called up yonder, I'll be there. CHORUS When the roll is called up yonder, When the roll is called up yonder, When the roll is called up yonder, When the roll is called up

WELCOME HOME We are happy indeed to welcome back to Aimwell Church those who have returned to this sacred place of happy memories. Many of you have come from long distances but we have asked God to protect you in travel and we rejoice together in this sacred fellowship. We are happy to have worshipping with us this morning, our friends from the neighboring churches of Ridgeway and many other visiting friends. We welcome in a very special way our daughter congregation, the people of Longtown Presbyterian Church. We welcome also several members of the Simpson congregation.

ITEMS GIVEN AND INSTALLED TO THE GLORY OF GOD: A beautiful time piece has been installed over the door leading out of the sanctuary into the vestibule and was given by Miss Mabel Cook and Mr. Joseph Crumpton.

The entrance to Aimwell Park has been completed by the installation of a stately outside lamp given by the Senior High Fellowship and installed by Elder Mr.
J. Herman Magill.

WELCOME INTO THE MEMBERSHIP OF AIMWELL CHURCH

Mrs. Ruby Spires Bass, wife of Mr. Tollie Bass, comes to us from the West Side Baptist Church of West Columbia, S. C. by restatement of her faith in Jesus Christ. We extend to her the right hand of fellowship into the work and worship of Aimwell Church.

Aimwell Presbyterian Church celebrates today the 172 year of her origin. In keeping with this celebration you will find on display the following items:
A set of offering plates used at Aimwell in the cemetery.
A Foot Stool from Old Aimwell Church in the cemetery.
A Pulpit Bible given by Miss Sally Means in 1859.
A Baptismal Bowl given by the Womens Auxiliary 1859.
A Pitcher, two Goblets and two Plates, Auxiliary 1859.
A Communion Set given in 1922 by the late Mr. Talmage Bolick in honor of his mother, the late Mrs. Sallie Bolick, a former member of Aimwell Church.

EVERYONE IS ASKED TO GIVE AS LIBERALLY AS POSSIBLE TO THE LAUNCHING OF OUR BUILDING PROGRAM TODAY.

Everyone is invited to eat picnic dinner together following this service, in popular Homecoming style.
