

IV- Letter and enclosures of Pastors.-

With hearty greetings to all the members of the Concord Church:

Your letter of invitation, through your pastor, to be present to take part in celebrating the centennial of the organization of Concord church, brought vividly before me in memory, the familiar faces of the good and venerable men who constituted the bench of ruling elders when I was installed their pastor. Wm. Wilson, John McCullough, Jas. Carlisle, Alex. Anderson and George Miller, all numbered with the dead; besides many others whose names we trust have been transferred from the church militant, to the church triumphant. To be present with you that survive, and to take part in the exercises, would to me be a melancholy pleasure, for it would be something like a funeral service, with myself in my seventieth year, the oldest surviving pastor, standing as it were on the verge of the grave. Duties, however, never clash, and as it will be my duty as the financial agent of the Synod of Texas, in founding a Theological Seminary, to be present to make my report at its annual meeting, which will be on the 16th of October, the very day of your celebration. I will be obliged to forego the pleasure of being with you in person, but you will all be well assured that I will be with you in spirit, and my prayer will be, that God's richest blessings may abide continually upon Concord church, as a vine of its own planting. With the brief memorial I now bid you God-speed in all good work.

Yours in fraternal bonds,

T. W. Erwin.
