The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the plane was the crisp, cool air.
 It felt like a fresh blanket after a long journey. The landscape below was a patchwork of green fields and small villages, dotted with red-roofed houses. The sun was just beginning to set, painting the sky in shades of orange and pink. I took a deep breath and felt a sense of peace wash over me. This was my first time visiting this beautiful part of the world, and I was already falling in love.

(Sunday Dec. 13th)

Met, and service by Bro. Whilden, the services, however, were very short on account of the very cold weather. After service the church met in conference and called Bro. Whilden for the ensuing year. He declined serving us on account of the great and fatiguing distance he would have to travel, and bade us an affectionate farewell. The church then instructed the clerk to write to Bro. Corley, requesting him to accept the pastorate for next year, after which we were dismissed.

C. O. Trapp, C. L.

(January 17th 1869.)

Met according to an appointment, made by Brother Corley and services by him. The church then met in conference and a portion of the members subscribed eighty dollars towards raising a salary for Bro. Corley for the present year, and an appointment was then made by him on the third Sunday in February next.

September 18th 1870.

In consequence of the absence of the clerk for the most of the time, from the neighborhood, the church record has been suspended from 11th of July 1869 to the present time, Brother Corley, however, continuing to serve us to the end of last year. From the 1st of Jan. last to the 1st of July we had no regular pastor but were indebted to the transient visits of ministerial brethren for pastoral services. By an arrangement made with the Little River and Rock Creek Churches we have secured the services of Bro. A. M. Cartledge from the 1st of July to the end of the year. The days for preaching are the third Sunday of one month and the fourth of the next alternately.
