

Ebenezer (Old Brick) Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church

This note was written on the church wall by a Yankee Soldier. They used part of the church to erect a bridge across Little River. It says:

Citizens of this County

Please excuse us for defacing your place of worship so much. It was absolutely necessary to effect a crossing over the creek.

A Yankee

This cemetery is located on State Highway 213 near Jenkinsville, about fourteen miles west of Winnsboro.
