Jackson Creek Presbyterian Church

Sacred to the memory of Hugh Milling Native of Dumbo County Dowd Ireland
Who departed this life the 7th Day of May 1887 Aged 85 Years 20 months and 16 days.
He was Captain in the 6th Regiment of the Army of South Carolina and of the Army of the Revolution and participated in all the suffering and privation incidents of that perilious service.

To the memory of Lieut. Larme Clark,
South Carolina Volunteers in Mexico
Who served in Mexico in the memorable Battle of Churubusc.
Commander of his company and while leading to victory-he received a shot in the head and fell exclaiming-"Onward men onward, remember where you are from."

Jackson Creek-continued

There are many old graves in this old cemetery. Some are unmarked. Some of the markers are so old that it is impossible to read. The ones I could read had no record of war service. Some were the right ages to serve in the Revolution War and the Civil War, and possible the War of 1812. Most are of Scotch and Irish descent, so I know the Scotch-Irish are famous for their fighting. There are not any markers of any type to indicate they have served in any wars. I am not familiar with the Lebanon community, but I know it must be stories and legends about the many people buried at the Old Rock Church. It would be interesting to hear these stories and legends passed down thru the generations. This is an interesting place.
