

Contributed photo

Trey Adams, second from the left, was recently recognized by the Fairfield County Service Department for excellent service.

Local firefighter recognized for excellent service

FAIRFIELD COUNTY — The Fairfield County Fire Service recently gave special recognition to Leonard Glenn Adams III, known as Trey to his family and friends. The oldest of three siblings, Adams is the son of Glenn and Melissa

Adams of Ridgeway.

On July 3, Trey turned 18. He joined the Ridgeway Volunteer Department in July 2012 at the age of 16 as a junior firefighter.

By December 2012, Adams had completed his basic firefighting course.

Throughout the year 2013, Adams completed Haz-Mat Awareness, Haz-Mat Ops and is now a certified interior Fire-fighter I, making Adams the youngest person in Fairfield County Fire Service history to reach this level of achievement.