Subject: Fairfield County area Addison family

To Whom It may Concern,

Ms. Lyles saw an inquiry I posted in a genealogy group last week and suggested I contact you. I am looking for information on the Addison family that lived in the Fairfield, Lancaster, Kershaw, and Chester County area of South Carolina in the late 1700s and early 1800s.

I have been trying to find my third great grandfather's parents for years with no success and finally had a male relative do a Y-DNA test. Our DNA matches and their ancestries seem to point to this Addison family in South Carolina. At least two are descendants of Capt. Thomas Addison of Fairfield County. My third great grandfather was in Georgia by 1841. I am much more familiar with how to find Georgia records than South Carolina's, but I am guessing Capt. Thomas Addison is probably 2 or 3 generations further back, so I need to find out more about Capt. Addison's sons.

This is what I do know. Capt. Addison had a son named Christopher, born about 1756-64, who moved to Georgia about 1819 and another son named William, born in 1766, who moved to Kentucky. Christopher was admin of the estate of a Thomas Addison in 1812 who left a widow and 9 children. I have found nothing naming the widow or children or telling whether or not the children were grown. I don't know if the deceased Thomas was Christopher's father or a brother, but there seem to be no other Addisons in the census in Fairfield County. I don't even find a Thomas after 1790 in Fairfield County.

I am hoping you might have access to a family Bible record or newspaper articles or records I haven't seen that might tell more about Capt. Thomas Addison, when he died, and who his other children were.

Thank you for your efforts,

Adriane
