

From <sup>the</sup> Wills of Fairfield County
By Buford S. Chappell Md.

Richard Wilm of Tennessee sold William Adger (sometimes written Edgar) two small tracts of land on Little River for an undisclosed sum on Oct. 13, 1813. Two of the acres of land were completely surrounded by land already owned by William Adger. The other tract of 8 acres lay on Runnels Branch, Little River, and was bounded on the north by Adger land.

On Sept 29, 1794 Robert Ellison of Warrborough sold Richard Wilm 100 acres of land on Runnels Branch; Little River for 10 pounds sterling

John Wynn sold Robert Ellison the following lots for 40 pounds in 1785
The one quarter acre lot # 40 on Washington Street and the following one half acre lot on Congress St. # 44, 38, 39.
