

WILLIAM HARRISON SCARBOROUGH

PORTRAITIST AND MINIATURIST

"A PARADE OF THE LIVING PAST"

BY

HELEN KOHN HENNIG

COLUMBIA, SOUTH CAROLINA
THE R. L. BRYAN COMPANY
MCMXXXVII

Owned by the Weston family. Portrait at the home of Miss Amy Weston, Congaree, S. C.

22a. ADAMS, MARY (MRS. JOHN HAMPDEN BROOKS). (See No. 52.)

23. ADAMS, MARY ANN. Canvas, 29½ x 24¾, rectangle. Blonde hair and eyebrows. Blue eyes. Fair complexion. Neutral background. White and rose dress with lace at neck. Wide coral necklace. On table by her hand is open black work box near headless doll. Painted when Mary Ann was about seven years old, a few months before her death.

Owned by Mrs. Sydney Dwight, Columbia, S. C.

23a. ADAMS, MRS. ROBERT (ANN ELIZABETH REESE). (See No. 263.)

24. ADAMS, SALLIE. Granddaughter of Joel Adams. Died in her youth. Painted at Congaree.

Owned by Mrs. James A. Clarkson, Hopkins, S. C.

24a. ADAMS, SYLVIA (MRS. JOHN P. ADAMS). (See No. 21.)

24b. ADDISON, ALLEN B. Lieutenant in war of 1812, stationed in Charleston. Married Patience Youngblood Butler, widow of Standmore Butler and granddaughter of Judge Arthur Simkins, one of the founders of Edgefield. He was one of the early court officers of Edgefield. Patience Addison, daughter of George Youngblood and Nancy Simkins, was great-grandmother of Judge Milledge L. Bonham.

Owned by heirs of the estate of J. L. Mims, Edgefield, S. C.

Authenticated by Mims diaries, showing Scarborough was house guest for weeks, painting entire family.

24c. ADGER, JOHN. Feb. 2, 1860 (on acc't), $150; July 25, 1860 (in full), 286.22.

(Portraits not located.)

24d. ADGER, ROBT. April 28, 1857, $550.00.

(Portraits not located.)

25. ADGER, SUSAN DUNLAP. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Adger of Charleston. She did not marry. Canvas, 24 x 30 ins. Painted at Charleston. This portrait has a very peculiar quality, in that wherever you move in the room the eyes seem to follow you.

Owned by Mrs. Kenneth James (Susan Adger Flinn), Darlington, S. C. Acct. Bk. "Aug. 5, 1857, Jas. Adger, Jr.—$126.75."