

muskets and Rebel yells will be used in the celebration. William is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Coleman, and is a junior.

Charles E. Turner, Jr. also a junior, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Turner, is a member of the Sunday Color Guard, is serving as a cadre squad leader and is the top-ranking corporal of his company, which is Company O.

Pepper Phillips is another Citadel junior, son of Mrs. Robert W. Ragsdale, and he is a member of Company 9, 3rd Battalion.

Other cadets are Richard Gustafson, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Gustafson, sophomore, Dan Ravenel, son of Mrs. Daniel Ravenel and John A. McLeod, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McLeod.

Among those who attended the recent Parents' Day at The Citadel were Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Coleman and Claude, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lyles, Mrs. Dan Ravenel and Livvy, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ragsdale and Susan Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. John A. McLeod and Annie.

Final Rites Held On Sunday for D. G. McMeekin, 63

David Glenn McMeekin, 63, of Jenkinsville died suddenly at his residence Friday morning.

He was born September 18, 1897, in Jenkinsville where he operated a large farm. He was a member of the Little River Baptist Church of Jenkinsville.

Survivors include three sisters, Mrs. E. J. Poole of Enoree, Mrs. Jack Scarlet of Oakland, Calif., and Miss Marjorie McMeekin of Enoree; three brothers, J. C. McMeekin and A. L. McMeekin of Jenkinsville, and W. T. McMeekin of Hampton; and a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon from the Glenn residence at Jenkinsville conducted by the Rev. Hydrick Reed. Interment was in the family cemetery.

Active pallbearers were W. A. Glenn, John Glenn, Jr., David Jeter, Henry Yarborough, R. P. McMeekin, Howard Yarborough, Joe Turckett, Jr., and E. D. Chappell.

Mrs. Smith Named District Prexy of Selective Service

Mrs. Vivian H. Smith, Clerk for Selective Service in Fairfield

Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Estes, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Pope and Lee, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Estes, Allison and Lee Tinsley, Mr. and Mrs. James Ogburn and Brian, all of Winnsboro; Mr. and Mrs. Grady Estes of Rock Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Cudd of Spartanburg; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gibson and Tommy Miss Gertrude Kelly of Greenville, Mrs. Mamie Kelly; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelly and Cherry, and Carl Kelly, of Cross Anchor, and Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Ivester, Steve and Cathy of Columbia.

Mr. and Mrs. Estes received many lovely gifts, and later in the evening they received a phone call from their son, T. J. Estes, Jr., of Aurelia, Iowa, who was unable to be here for the happy occasion.

Woman Shoots and Kills Her Husband

Louise Adger shot and killed her husband, Joe Adger, on Friday evening at the home of the former's mother, Lucile Edwards, on Zion Hill, following a family brawl when the husband came in and was abusing his baby and his mother-in-law, according to information received from law enforcement officers.

The wife is being held in the Fairfield County Jail until the inquest, which will be held today (Thursday).

Law Enforcement officers who investigated the case were Fred Robinson and Skippy Brown, Policemen, and R. R. Macfie, chief of Police.

R. M. Birke in Talk to Lions

R. M. Birke, administrator of the Fairfield County Memorial Hospital, was guest speaker at the November 7 meeting of the Lions Club. Mr. Birke traced the history of hospitals, beginning with those established by Buddha before the birth of Christ, and progressing to the modern hospital we know today.

Mr. Birke pointed out that Fairfield County Hospital is fully accredited. It is the smallest fully accredited hospital in the two Carolinas.

At this meeting the club voted to enter a float in the Christmas Parade to be held Dec. 6. Marion Frazier was appointed chairman of the float project.

Lebanon Church Will Conduct 3 Special Services

Clover. The highlight of the meeting was the Missionary address by Mrs. E. S. Curry, 40 years in Taiwan.

Hebron was represented by members Mrs. Bill Bankhead, Mrs. James Bankhead, and Mrs. George Alexander at the Thursday evening session. Attending Friday's session was Miss Roxie Dixon, Mrs. Nealy Bankhead, Mrs. J. T. McDonald and Mrs. B. S. Bankhead. The drive up was a great sight, the hills and mountains, trees with God's paints of almost every color of the rainbow, autumn flowers and Colonial homes.

Personals

Those attending the District Masonic Lodge meeting at Aimwell Presbyterian Church in Ridgeway on October 26 at 7:30 p.m. were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bankhead, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Morgan, B. M. Robbins, William Drawdy, Alvin Brannen and Shelby Barker.

Mr. and Mrs. Ephrian Jackson and children enjoyed the visit over the weekend of Mrs. Jackson's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Johnson of Trenton. On Sunday her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clark and son drove over and spent Sunday and returned with them.

Mr. and Mrs. William McIlwain of Santee visited her sister, Mrs. B. S. Bankhead, Mrs. Nannie Smith and Mrs. W. T. Raines also joined them and spent the day.

Homer Ray Carter, A. B. I. returned home last Saturday. He has been in far east for seven months. He is enjoying his three months old daughter, Becky for the first time. He will leave November 10 for San Diego, Calif. Mrs. Carter and Becky will return with him.

Mrs. Lila Smith Gradick and Mrs. Carrie McIntire of Blaney and Lugoff visited Mrs. Nannie Smith and David last Monday.

Mrs. Sam Patrick of Columbia spent Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Nealy Bankhead.

Miss Kathy Gregory of Columbia and Miss Phillis Gregory of Charlotte spent the weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gregory.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bankhead joined Mr. and Mrs. Willie Hackle, Miss Wilodene Hackle and Bobby Smith in Winnsboro Saturday morning to go to Metter, Ga., to a family reunion of Glissons, Hodges and Kennedys, which was enjoyed by over 200 relatives. They returned home Sunday p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Rob McDonald visit-who contributed greatly to events here was the late Adam Hood, and he describe in detail, recalling that he like a "true Western sheriff today's television series. Other things that Sheriff Hood noted were wrestling matches he was also interested in. Other Winnsboro "ole-timers, always donated to help young with their activities (to buy balls, footballs, etc.) were th John F. Davis, A. M. Owens a late Judge of Probate W. L. I Two negroes who also contr were the late O. E. Manigault ran a store where Postal S Station now stands, and Alex Russell.

Local talent in boxing and ring matches was pitted against Mr. McMaster said, with results sometimes quite unexp and he related many amusing dotes of these rowdy exhib some of which were held in ancient Thespian Hall (above News and Herald).

Mr. McMaster said one of first college football games h was when Jack DesPortes playing end for Carolina a Clemson (Clemson won. 6 Later, Mr. DesPortes, as d speaker, coached at Mt. Zion stitute without remuneration. A the many outstanding college ball players Winnsboro has p ed, the speaker named Dr. McCants, a star quarterba Davidson when he weighed or pounds, the late Daniel Hey Moffatt Boulware, Gaillard E Charlie Robinson, Boyd Tenn. and a number of others. He called to mind Mt. Zion fe players of yesteryear, and r ed highlights of games on th lege and high school level. M McMaster, himself, was an "all-Davidson tackle, who made th state team more than once.

At Tuesday's meeting, Pre W. B. Patrick appointed a com to cooperate with the Jaycee the Red Cross in trying to Fairfield county make up its bank deficit. The committee is posed of Forest Hughes, chai Robert Birke and John L. Po.

Also, as he did some three ago, Health and Happiness man Quay McMaster took on the Presidential election. N "chickened out" and the vote as it was in a previous po for Nixon, 9 for Kennedy.

The program next week charge of F. C. McMaster.

W. James Turner, Jr., were tained at the home of Mr. and Mott S. Tyler in Columbia at