

FROM: South Carolina Genealogies

v. 2, p. 151 Mrs. Henrietta Aiken married George Edwards (2nd marriage) 3 Jul 1833. She died in Paris 7 Sept. 1848, age 63 years. From epitaph of James Lingard Wyatt, St. Philip's Churchyard, Charleston.

v. 3, p. 86 ". . .governor Aikin's extravagance in government was such that he had already spent on trials more than his own salary, and that it seemed a curious thing for a Republic, that only a rich man could be governor. . ."

v. 2, p. 113 see attached

v. 2, p. 99 names Serena Daniel Aiken and v. 3, p. 120 names Serena Aiken as dau of Serena Daniel Aiken

Johnson, E.D. and Sloan, K.L., compilers and editors. South Carolina
A Documentary Profile of the Palmetto State, Columbia: University of South Carolina, 1971.

p. 288 William Aiken, President of the railroad, died 5 Mar 1831

p. 998 William Aiken censured for complimenting Nathaniel P. Banks for courtesy as Speaker of the House

Sumpter Watchman 1 Apr. 1857

Charleston Courier 20 Mar 1857

Congressional Globe 34th Cong. 3rd session pp. 998

