

---

Obituaries

---

Edward Alston

WINNSBORO - Edward Alston, 69, died Wednesday, Feb. 16.

Services conducted by the Rev. William Able were held Sunday, Feb. 20 at Morris Creek Baptist Church. Burial followed in the church cemetery.

Pallbearers were sons. Floral bearers were nieces.

Born July 11, 1930, he was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. David and Ada Dawkins Alston.

A native of Fairfield, he was a veteran and a retired crane operator for Owen Steel. He was a member of Morris Creek Baptist Church.

Surviving are his wife, Elizabeth Johnson Alston; four daughters, Ernestine Dove of Pennsylvania, Mary Harris and Ada Yvonne Chiles of South Carolina, and Alice E. Alston of Georgia; six sons, Larry Brown, Leon Brown, James Alston, Willie Alston, and Melvin Alston, all of South Carolina, and Bruce Alston of Georgia; two sisters, Patricia Counts of Columbia and Ollie Hook McCants of Winnsboro; three brothers, Charles Alston of New Jersey, and Nathaniel Alston and William Alston of South Carolina.

The Russell-McCutchen Funeral Home of Winnsboro was in charge of the arrangements.