

RECORD OF
Revolutionary Soldiers and Patriots
IN SOUTH CAROLINA

Soldier or Patriot John Alston
Birth 1739, in Scotland Death 1787
Wife's Name Mary Boyd
Birth In Scotland Death Fairfield County, S. C.
Date of Marriage _____ Place of Residence Fairfield Co., S. C.
Father of Rev. Soldier _____ Birth _____ Death _____
Mother of Rev. Soldier _____ Birth _____ Death _____
Their Marriage _____ Name of Children of Rev. Soldier _____
James Alston, married Frances Kirkland, daughter of Col. William
Kirkland and wife Lucretia Pearson, on Cedar Creek, Fairfield
County, South Carolina
_____
_____
Service Record of Rev. Soldier Stub Entries to Indents, No. 292. Book R,
Page 50
Location of Grave Ten miles south-west of Winnsboro, S. C., near
(This information absolutely necessary)
Mossydale School, Fairfield County, South Carolina
Monument Marble--erected by his family.
Bronze Tablet or Marker _____
Placed By _____
Other Descendants Granddaughter Elizabeth M. Alston, married Dr.
George Butler Pearson; William John Alston (grandson) married
1st Marianna Brown, Johns Island, S. C., secondly, Susanna Pope.
Historian _____ Address _____
Chapter _____
~~Historian~~ Mrs. A. H. Maybin Address Whitmire, S. C.
Chapter Richard Winn Chapter, Jenkinsville, S. C.