

COLUMBIAN LOSES FLORIDA BROTHER

Macfie Anderson Leaves to Attend Funeral of E. K. Anderson.

Jan. 1927
J. Macfie Anderson left Columbia yesterday morning for Winter Haven, Fla., to attend the funeral of his brother, Edward K. Anderson, of Auburndale, Fla., who died Thursday morning after an illness of one month.

Mr. Anderson was formerly of Fairfield county and is well known in Columbia, where he had visited his brother. A sister in Columbia, Mrs. G. A. Gamble, also survives, as well as the following sisters: Mrs. George McMaster, Winnsboro; Mrs. Mary Anderson, Asheville, and Mrs. Henry Caldwell, Charlotte, N. C.

A nephew, T. K. Ruff, and a niece, Mrs. James Bigham, both of Columbia, survive.

Mr. Anderson was a prominent merchant in Auburndale and his friends and relatives will grieve to learn of his passing. Funeral services will be at 2:30 Monday afternoon
