

Lucille Anderson

WINNSBORO - Lucille Anderson, 89, died Tuesday, Feb. 1.

Services were held Saturday, Feb. 5 at United House of Prayer. Burial followed in the Fairfield Community cemetery.

Pallbearers were members of United House of Prayer.

A native of Winnsboro, she was born May 10, 1910, the daughter of the late Bill Brooks and the late Ida Howard Brooks.

Ms. Anderson was a homemaker and a member of United House of Prayer.

Survivors are her sister, Ella B. Holmes of Winnsboro and nieces and nephews.

Gibson's Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

HERALD INQ.
02/10/2000

suits of the games at Greenwood Christian and Wardlaw," said Lady Eagles' coach Joe Spires. "However, we are not going to give up. We still have five region games left, and every one of them now takes on added meaning."

The Lady Eagles played at King Tuesday night, then host Cambridge tonight and Long Cane on

