

Another honor for Mike Anderson

Winnsboro native Mike Anderson, star runningback with the Denver Broncos last year, has received another honor.

Anderson was presented with the Victor Award in Las Vegas, Nevada. The award honors those men and women who have made the greatest contributions to sports.

Anderson is the son of Emily Copeland and the late Mason Anderson.

Other recipients this year include Tiger Woods, the LPGA's Karrie Webb, Duke's Mike Krzyzewski, the NHL's Mario Lemieux, tennis star Venus Williams and Olympic track star Michael Johnson.

It is presented in support of the City of Hope National Medical Center and Beckman Research Institute, in their campaigns against cancer.

Injuries to the Denver backfield, thrust Anderson, a rookie, into the role of starting runningback.

He didn't disappoint, rushing for 1,487 yards (4th in the NFL), set a single-game Bronco record of 251 yards against New Orleans and scored 15 touchdowns to lead his team to a berth in the playoffs.

He was named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year.
