

Fairfield's four-star general, W. O. Brice (U.S.M.C. ret.), looks on as Medal of Honor winner Webster Anderson is feted during ceremonies honoring him, held in the local armory.

Anderson, an Army sergeant, won his medal, the highest in the nation, for an outstanding act of courage against enemy forces in Vietnam.

Sgt. Anderson Wins Highest Award