

John Adam Arick married Mary ??? (lived in Fairfield County, SC)

This John Arick was either a brother or son of Frederick Arick who was also in Fairfield Co. early records (1780-1790).

John had the following known children:

John A. Arick, Jr. – went to East Feliciana Parish, LA and died there in 1817, unmarried.

William L. Arick – went to Marion & Lawrence Counties, MS in 1810 with brother-in-law, Richard Dunkley. Later, moved to Yazoo Co., MS and died there in 1830s.

Nancy Arick – married Richard Dunkley about 1805 – had one child, Mary Ann Dunkley, born abt. 1807. Nancy Arrick prob. died in childbirth.

Female Arick – married ? Duggins – had one child Anne, born before 1808.

Lee D. Arick – child of John Adam and Mary Arick – possible full brother or half-brother of other Arick siblings. Stayed in SC (inherited plantation of parents) but appears to have moved to Chester Co. about 1820. Lee D. Arick had several sons.

Catherine Arick was either the daughter or sister of John Adam Arick and/or wife, daughter, or sister of Frederick Arick (died bef. 1784). She married Rukins Jelks in 1790.

Possibility – John Adam Arick married a Dortch or his mother was a Dortch. I see no other connection to Dunkley except marriage to Richard.

Hi Debbie,

Thanks for your note on the Dunkley family. I do not know anything about the Dunkley family, although I have seen the name occur in some family meetings. The Arrick/Errick/trick family was one of several families to leave South Carolina and move to Spanish Feliciana. Among the other families were the Dortch, Bethany, and Jelks families. Catherine Arick married Rukins Jelks in 1791, and they moved to Feliciana, living close to the Dortch family. In 1814, Catherine and Rukins moved to Amite Co., MS. Catherine died in 1854 in East Feliciana Parish, LA. John Errick witnessed the will of David Hay, whose relative married William Dortch. David Hay made his will in 1783 in the Camden District of SC. John Arrick was the administrator of the estate of Frederick Arrick in the Camden District in 1784. John Arrick witnessed the marriage of Mary Dortch and George Gamhart in 1806 in Spanish Feliciana. This Mary Dortch was the daughter of John Dortch and Catherine Erick. A John Arick died in Feliciana Parish in 1817, and in his probate file there is a reference to your Mary Ann Dunkely, a minor under the age of 12 years in 1817, of Fairfield Co., SC.

Parsons Carter was the husband of Ann Hays Dortch, daughter of William and Mary Hays of SC. Samuel Adams was the husband of Elizabeth Dortch Adams.

I do not know if this was any help. I wish I knew more about the relationships of these folks.

Thanks for your interest.
